Funerals Set For Victims Of Car Crash

Surviving Woman In Highway Wreck Reported 'Critical'

A Hammondsville woman remains in "critical" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in a car-truck crash at Routes 7 and 213 below Wellsville early Tuesday morning which claimed the lives of three others.

Funeral services have been scheduled for the three victims, two of whom were nurses at City Hospital.

Mrs. Lula Boehm, 72, spent a poor night, according to hospital authorities. She is the lone survivor of the four passengers in the car struck by a loaded tractor-trailer rig at the intersection yesterday at 8:45 a. m. She suffered back injuries.

Killed were Miss Margaret E. Jarvis, 38, and Miss Violet Arlene Radle, 46, both of Irondale R. D. 1, and Mrs. Katherine Parsons Crook, 65, of Hammondsville.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said the rig driven by Willie Joe Rewis, 58, of Alliance hit the car broadside when it pulled from Route 213 on Route 7 and into his path. The car was driven by Miss Radle, officers said.

She was thrown from the car, suffering a fractured skull and other injuries. She was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. Miss Jarvis died at the hospital at 11:10 a. m. She suffered fractured ribs, a crushed chest and internal injuries. Mrs. Crook died at 11:30 a. m. with a fractured skull and internal injuries.

The four—all members of the Hammondsville Methodist Church—were en route to religious services at an Akron mission. All were active in the Methodist Church and leaders in the WSCS.

Miss Jarvis, a life resident of the Irondale-Hammondsville area, was a general duty nurse at the hospital. She received nurse training at Alliance City Hospital. Both she and Miss Radle served as missionary nurses at Pine Mountain Settlement in Kentucky. Miss Jarvis was a graduate of Toronto High School.

Miss Jarvis is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jarvis, with whom she made her home, and a sister, Mrs. Ruth Smith of Hammondsville.

Services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the Haugh Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. John C. Millhorn of the Hammondsville church. Burial will be in Hammondsville Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and evening.

Miss Radle was born May 18, 1913, in Perry County, Pa., near Harrisburg, a daughter of the late Josia and Martha Shotsberger Radle. The body will be removed today from the MacLean Funeral Home at Wellsville to the David Myers Funeral Home at Newport, Pa., for services.

Mrs. Crook, a life resident of the Hammondsville area and wife of McKinley Crook, was born in

Ike Urges Big Push To End Strike

Intensive, Good Faith Bargaining Asked In Letters

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's appeal for a big push to end the steel strike has netted only a new round of accusations between steel management and labor.

Neither side reacted with a new approach to breaking the 57-day stalemate—now the longest steel strike in the nation's history.

"Half-hearted bargaining is not enough," Eisenhower said Tuesday in letters to David McDonald, president of the Steelworkers Union, and the presidents of the 12 firms involved.

"Intensive, uninterrupted good faith bargaining, with a will to make a responsible settlement, is required," Eisenhower said.

His letters went out a few hours after negotiators met for 45 minutes in New York, then recessed until Thursday to prepare for expanded subcommittee negotiations.

McDonald promptly told the President that the steelworkers have been seeking and will continue to seek "good faith, uninterrupted, wholehearted bargaining with the objective of achieving a reasonable settlement."

McDonald said "representatives of the steel companies with whom we have been meeting have either refused or lacked the authority to negotiate, except on the basis of complete denial of any justice to the steelworkers."

R. Conrad Cooper, the industry's chief negotiator, said the steel companies are "seeking with diligence, patience, persistence and determination a noninflationary settlement.

He added: "We do not believe that surrender to the pressures for an inflationary agreement are desired by the President, by the American people or by the steelworkers themselves.

"We have been trying for weeks and will try again with continued determination to achieve a settlement which is in the best interest of all concerned."

Arrival Six Days Away

Details On Khrushchev's Visit To U.S. Still Secret

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just what Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will see on his visit to the United States is still an official mystery, even though his arrival is only six days away.

So far only a bare-bones outline of the Soviet premier's itinerary has been issued here, although the announcement of his coming was made by President Eisenhower more than five weeks ago.

An apparent reason for the delay lies in red tape in Moscow, thicker than the Washington variety, which makes still more difficult the arduous task of preparing for an historic visit of top importance.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty has named the half-dozen U. S. cities Khrushchev will visit and the dates.

The White House also has announced the detailed schedule for the first two days of the Sept. 15-27 visit. These are Khrushchev's initial days in Washington, marked by ceremonial functions.

But as for specific questions on what the Soviet leader will do on his cross-country travels from New York to Los Angeles—and the questions pour in by the hundreds—the official reply here is that it is still uncertain when an announcement can be made.

That is the stock answer given even after persons and organizations along the Khrushchev route have passed out word locally of arrangements for the visitor.

The headaches to planners from an unsettled schedule are compounded on a mammoth scale.

About 100 Soviets are expected to accompany the Premier to the United States. They will have to be received, fed, and housed.

About 350 newsmen and photographers have applied to cover the tour. More than a thousand want accreditation at local stops.

Federal and local security officials will have to mesh gears to provide protection and handle the crowds.

The traveling horde will need special transportation and accommodations not easy to come by. In the matter of hotel reservations, for instance, advance checks show that during the Sept. 20-21 period allotted for Khrushchev's stop at San Francisco, seven conventions will be in town.

Fact-Finders Due In Laos This Weekend

Plans For Mission Made By U.N. Over Bitter Red Protests

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N.'s new four-nation fact-finding group may get a team off to Laos by this week end to investigate reported invasions from neighboring Red North Viet Nam.

The subcommittee, set up by the Security Council over bitter Soviet protests, met Tuesday with Council President Egidio Ortona of Italy, to make plans for the mission.

Ortona said the four members—Italy, Argentina, Japan and Tunisia—agreed it was vital to carry out its task as quickly as possible.

The West proposed the inquiry group as a compromise the Soviets might not oppose too strongly. Laos had called for U. N. troops to meet the alleged Red aggression in the same way that the Western powers rallied to the defense of South Korea against Communist North Korea in 1950.

The Western plan ran into immediate opposition from North Viet Nam which declared the setting up of the fact finding group was illegal.

Another Veto Looms In New Projects Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Inviting a repeat veto, Congress has sent President Eisenhower another big public works money bill containing the same projects which prodded the veto of an earlier measure.

Both Senate and House passage of the new $1,185,309,093 appropriation were with margins far above the two-thirds necessary to pass legislation over a veto. The Senate vote was 73-15, the House 302-93.

The House last Wednesday upheld the first veto by one vote.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill), Senate Republican leader, said before Tuesday's vote the measure may be vetoed as its predecessor was. But he did not say whether the President had threatened another veto.

All projects in the new bill were cut 2½ per cent, bringing the total to $97,166 below Eisenhower's requests.

The bill provides money for several hundred river and harbor, flood control and reclamation projects, with an ultimate cost of almost 800 million dollars, were not budgeted by the administration.

Ohio projects include:

For regular services, Air Force—Clinton County AFB, $2,252,000; Wright-Patterson AFB $9,227,000.

For reserve components, Army National Guard—Elyria, $160,000; Lancaster, $160,000; Greenville, $165,000; Norwalk, $140,000. Reserve—Bellaire, $302,000; Bryan, $30,000; Cadiz, $30,000; Caldwell, $135,000 (Senate added to House list) Canton, $61,000; Dayton, $48,000; Delaware, $302,000; Fremont, $168,000; Kenton, $30,000; Marietta, $30,000; Paines ville, $168,000; Plymouth, $30,000; St. Mary's, $168,000; Warren, $302,000; Wooster, $30,000. Navy Reserve—Cleveland, $655,000. Air Force National Guard—Springfield, $105,000.

Rear-End Car Crash Results In Injury To 7

4 Members Of City Family In Hospital; 2 Others Hurt Less

Four members of a city family were hospitalized and two others injured less seriously when their car rammed the rear of another on Route 30 in California Hollow Tuesday afternoon about 4:30, injuring a seventh person.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a 1948 convertible, driven by William W. Jones, 21, of 415 Prospect St., struck a 1951 sedan operated by Nancy Lee Chandler, 16, of Dresden Ave. Ext., who had stopped to make a left turn.

In City Hospital today are:

Jones, a Homer Laughlin China Co. employe, in "fair" condition with head injuries and bruises of the elbow.

Mary Jane Jones, 18, his sister, also of 415 Prospect St., in "good" condition with head and nose injuries.

Bobbie Ellen Cole, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cole, 415 Prospect St., "fairly good" condition with abrasions of the forehead.

Arvin Coil, 22, of 677 Almont St., in "fairly good" condition with a possible fracture of the knee.

Other passengers in Jones' car, who were treated and released, were Terry Jones, 9, who suffered abrasions of a foot and forehead, and Sherry Cole, 4, abrasions of both legs and the chest. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Cole.

Miss Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Chandler of Dresden Ave. Ext., was treated for bruises of both legs and a back injury.

Mrs. Cole is a sister of the driver and Miss Jones. The family said Jones and the others were headed for Grimms Bridge where they planned to go swimming. Coil is a cousin of Cole.

The patrol cited Jones for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Talks Futile At Mackintosh

Settlement Eludes Bliss Firm, Union

No progress was reported during talks Tuesday for a contract extension between Canton officials of the E. W. Bliss Co. and the negotiating teams of the Midland Mackintosh - Hemphill Division plant and the Garrison Mackintosh - Hemphill plant at Pittsburgh, Alex Bowie, United Steelworkers staff representative, reported.

He said the whole day was spent in negotiations. The locals for both plants asked for an extension similar to the one recently negotiated between the company and its plant at Salem.

Bowie said that agreement included paid insurance, a co-operative wage system and any "package deal" to be negotiated in New York between the union and basic steel companies.

He said the company said both Pennsylvania plants wanted too much when they asked for equal terms with the Salem agreement. Bowie said that production workers of the Midland and Pittsburgh plants do not have paid insurance or the co-operative wage system.

He said the company's fourth plant at Canton still is on strike. Contract deadline for both Ohio plants was Aug. 31.

Bowie said he plans to request of Kay Kluz, acting director of the union's District 20, to petition the government's Concilation and Mediation Service for a representative to attend talks.

He said a meeting will be held Friday at 10 a. m. in Pittsburgh to discuss insurance for the dura-

Neff Arrested On Extortion In Road Case

BEAVER — Samuel G. Neff, former Beaver County Democratic chairman and head of the Pennsylvania Workingman's Insurance Fund, was arrested this morning on charges of extortion and conspiracy to cause extortion before Justice of the Peace Frank Storar.

George A. Mazzant of Elwood City, a foreman with the Department of Highways, was arrested Tuesday and posted $5,000 bond.

This brings to five the number arrested in the Beaver County highway department scandal that resulted in the dismissal of highly-placed state officials. All will be given hearings Friday at 2 p. m. before Squire Storer.

Meanwhile, Atty. Louis Glasso, Pittsburgh counsel for Neff announced he will file a petition asking removal of District Atty. Richard P. Steward as prosecutor in criminal libel suits Neff has filed against Auditor General Charles Smith, J. Alex Jacobs, his investigator, and Editor Ralph Temple of the Beaver Valley Times.

Neff and the district attorney are both Democrats but bitter political opponents. Steward would not comment on the development.

The suit followed a 55-page report by the auditor general charging Neff and other Beaver County Democrats and highway department workers with forcing kickbacks from equipment contractors.

Squad To Ride, Not March

Parade Saturday To Honor Championship Drill Team

Probably feeling as strange as cowboys suddenly put on foot, the national championship drill team of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66 will ride—not march—in a business district parade Saturday morning.

For once, the squad will be able to forget the cadence count and the intricate manual of arms, relaxing in seats in open convertibles while the community pays tribute to its second consecutive national championship.

The squad won the championship Sept. 1 at the national VFW convention in Los Angeles. The members arrived home by plane Sunday night.

The parade is being arranged by the East Liverpool Sportsmen's Club, a newly organized group which aims at stimulating sports activity. James Flasco, president, conferred with Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross Tuesday at City Hall on first details of the parade.

Saturday will be "VFW Drill Squad Day" in East Liverpool. Mayor Fred P. Lawrence agreed yesterday to issue a proclamation setting aside the day to pay tribute to the team.

The parade is scheduled to move through the business district at 10:30. The drill squad members will ride in open cars, escorted by another district drill team that will serve as an honor guard. Eighteen units so far have been asked to participate, including high school bands, fire departments and drill squads, Flasco said.

Any units wishing to participate in the parade may contact Flasco at FU 5-8712.

City May Present Plaque To Drill Team

If it can be purchased and engraved in time, a plaque may be presented to the VFW drill team by Council and the city administration Saturday at the climax of a parade honoring the squad for winning its second consecutive national championship.

Plans for a presentation were discussed informally by councilmen Tuesday night with Mayor Fred P. Lawrence and Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross. As an alternative, several councilmen suggested erecting signs on the Diamond or on major highways leading into the city to tell the traveling public that this is: "East Liverpool, Home of the National Championship VFW Drill Team."

The city team's first national win was in New York City last year. It also has five Ohio championships.

A tag day, plus other public subscriptions, helped finance purchase of new uniforms and to pay expenses for the West Coast trip.

Take Red To Church, Senator Tells President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) wants President Eisenhower to take Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to church during his visit here.

"It is never too late for any sinner to repent," Johnston said Tuesday.

Despite Mechanical Failure

Some Success Is Counted On Space Capsule Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An unmanned model of the vehicle an American will ride into space was rocketed high over the Atlantic today in a test which promised some success despite a mechanical failure.

The huge Atlas booster rocket failed to fall away as scheduled after spending its force. The resulting drag cut the flight short of its planned 100-mile height and 2,000-mile distance.

But observers at this testing station counted up these elements of gain:

1. The space capsule itself was quickly located afloat on the ocean, with a prospect of recovery and valuable information from its load of instruments.

2. That meant the capsule had survived the searing friction of re-entry into the heavy atmosphere.

3. Telemetry signals, described by missilemen as good, reported throughout most of the flight on the performance of the vehicle and the conditions it encountered.

The director of Project Mercury, which is aimed at putting a man into orbit in 1961, rated the re-entry survival as probably a major step forward.

He said the primary objective of the trial was to see how the capsule stood up under the heat and shock of coming back from a simulated orbital path.

$100,000 Fire Hits Store In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Fire swept through a west side furniture store early today, and damage was estimated at $80,000 to $100,000.

The damage estimate was made by Samuel King, 40, of Parma, co-owner of the King Furniture Co.

Because of dense smoke from burning bedding and furniture, firemen had to use gas masks in fighting the blaze in the basement and main floor of the one-story brick building.

City Man Gets Prison Term

An East Liverpool man was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary and a Pennsylvania youth received probation at a hearing Tuesday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard at Lisbon.

Gilbert Percy Beers, 32, of 207 Walnut St. was sentenced to 1-15 years each on 2 counts of burglary. He broke into the Midway Diner in East Liverpool May 11 and McKinley School in Wellsville May 12. Judge Buzzard said he could serve the terms concurrently.

Donald L. Cramer, 18, of Ernest, Pa., was placed on 3 years probation for the same burglaries. He must reimburse the diner owner and the school officials for their loss and pay court costs. He was placed under a 11 p. m. curfew. He and Beers were caught leaving the school by Wellsville police. They got $50 in cash and cigarettes from the diner and a small amount of change from the school.

Both were indicted by the recalled April Grand Jury in June and pleaded guilty. Both requested probation but the judge said Beers past record "was poor."

Porter Firm Division To Spend $1,600,000

tion of the strike. The locals requested that the company pay insurance of all employes at the two Pennsylvania plants as the union has such an agreement with basic steel companies.

The Salem plant has about 350 employes, 700 at Canton, about 350 at Midland and a little over 200 at Pittsburgh. George VanKirk, president of Local 1269 of the Midland plant, and Ray Whitehouse of the Pittsburgh plant, attended negotiations.

Her funeral was delayed from Friday because the daughter in Africa cannot get home until Friday night.

Burial will be in Hammondsville Cemetery.

It's The Same Old Fight

There are times in the hurly-burly of politics and government when every spectator needs a program to tell him who the players are and what positions they are playing.

The hurly-burly over the Khrushchev visit is one of the times.

President Eisenhower has taken the position as chief executive and the maker of foreign policy that he has the right and the duty to arraign a home-and-home series of visits with the premier of the Soviet Union.

Under the Constitution, he does have the right. And as a public official who has dedicated his energy to peace, he does have the duty to do whatever he can do to ease tension between his government and the Soviet Union.

But Mr. Eisenhower also must play two other roles. He is a politician, and he is a symbol in this republic's oldest and bitterest fight—the contest between the President and Congress, especially the Senate, for the upper hand in foreign relations.

Thus, attacks on Khrushchev, no matter how they may be made to appear, are essentially attacks on the President of the United States. This is true even though some of the Khrushchev attackers would deny that they had any intention of interfering with the proper function of the presidency. This is a particularly ticklish situation when they are motivated by religion, because it raises the question whether they may be putting religion ahead of Constitutional right.

As far as Congress is concerned—and especially the Senate—any question about the President's right to go through with the Khrushchev visits becomes part of the ageless bicker over divided powers. Here it is again—the issue of whether the President has the sole right to formulate foreign policy and put it into action, or whether he should be bound and tied by the Senate's right to have a part in treaty-making.

It is a fair guess that Mr. Eisenhower did not think of the possibility he might be nibbled to distraction by critical ducks when he announced the Khrushchev visit. But it was a fair guess when he made the announcement that his executive prerogative would be challenged from every quarter—from Congress, from religious groups, from patriotic groups and from political partisans. All have been heard from.

They need to be identified as to motives and position to understand what they are up to, which is essentially the American pastime of trying to tear down the prestige of the presidency, particularly in foreign relations.

Nature Abhors A Bottleneck

The strongest incentive to look for new oil fields has come in recent times from an unintentional source—Gamal Abdel Nasser, president of the United Arab Republic and strong man of Egypt.

The instant he began to use the Suez Canal as a bargaining lever, the value of that maritime bottleneck began to dwindle. Oil producers and their customers started to look for ways to make themselves independent of the bottleneck.

A new oil field has been developed in Libya. A French pipeline across the Sahara to the Mediterranean port of Bougie has been finished. A second pipeline through Tunisia will make France independent of the Suez—and perhaps Nasser will remember that France originally owned the Suez canal outright.

There is a moral in what has happened to Nasser.

No one who thinks he has discovered a way to bend the world to his will can afford to forget that every action is followed by a reaction; every weapon by a counter-weapon; every threat by a counter-threat. This is the way the affairs of mankind are kept in balance.

Whether it is a political strong man who dreams of bringing his opponents to heel, or a monopoly of business or labor that threatens to dictate terms, there invariably is an opposing force brought into play.

This always seems to come as a surprise and shock to the would-be dictators. Their first impulse is to charge that they are being unfairly set upon by ruthless enemies who seek to destroy them.

They never admit that it was their own idea to destroy; that they created their "enemies" by their own ruthlessness.

The oil industry cannot afford to be at Nasser's mercy for the transportation of oil produced in the Middle East. Industry cannot afford to be at the mercy of the unionists who want to dictate to it. The nation cannot afford to be at the mercy of either industrialists or its unionists. Next to a vacuum, nature abhors a bottleneck most.

The Boys In The Back Room

The joke that everybody is beginning to understand, about optimists learning to speak Russian and pessimists trying to learn Chinese, probably tells more about Laos than anything the United Nations investigating team will dig up on its flying visit.

The Russian Communists are locked in a deadly embrace with the Chinese Communists, who outnumber them and have aspirations to out-think them. It is conceivable by a far stretch of imagination that the Kremlin pushed the ideological button that started trouble in this remote country in Southeastern Asia. But it is conceivable with no stretch of the imagination that the button was pushed in Peiping, which does not want Comrade Khrushchev to forget that in any showdown with the non-Communist world there are more Chinese Communists to be thought about than Russian Communists.

The Communist conspiracy as such is a one-party setup. But even in one-party setups there is a division of opinion—a two-party system. In the Communist conspiracy there is the Russian bloc and the Chinese bloc. There also has been a "splinter" party that threatened to grow into something formidable—the Titoists, paced by dissenters in Belgrade.

The trouble in Laos could have been arranged by the Kremlin in some weird version of Machiavellian scheming. But in all probability it was a going-away present to Premier Khrushchev, to commemorate his first trip to the United States. His friends in Peiping would not want to be forgotten.

Among the pessimists of this battered earth who are studying Chinese in case the ideological ball bounces that way must be some of the forward-looking men in the Kremlin, including Khrushchev, himself.

A Dangerous Spot

Every time there's a fatal traffic accident it isn't necessarily cause for cries to do this and do that.

But Tuesday's tragedy at the intersection of Routes 7 and 213 near Yellow Creek serves as the grimmest of reminders that serious consideration should be given to correcting a hazardous situation there.

Swinging onto Route 7 from Route 213 is an operation to test the best of drivers, particularly when crossing to the lane nearest the river while en route to East Liverpool. A moment of carelessness can mean trouble. The intersection is especially dangerous when it's foggy.

In addition to regular auto traffic, loaded school buses also use the intersection.

Highway department officials should inspect the site — if they haven't already done so — with a view toward taking steps to reduce the hazard. An underpass probably would be the most logical long - range approach, but for the present at least every effort should be made to relieve the problem by some other method.

The highway is a new one and a welcome improvement, but there could be more tragedies like those of Tuesday unless something is done quickly.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mortimer Topblower, himself a product of slum conditions, is among those tearing their hair at the current tactics in handling youthful punks who assault and murder young and old in the streets and parks of many cities.

"Gov. Rockefeller says kids must be given a 'sense of belonging' and 'suitable outlets for energies.'" roared Mortimer. "Somebody should slip him a roster of great Americans who didn't have half the playgrounds and recreation parks and who suffered plenty in the slums without losing their sense of belonging

"They found outlets for their energies short of muggings, stabbings and shootings on summer nights. Know what? The kids of yesterday responded to the American dream of opportunity instead of to a war cry from some rowdy in a costume out of a horror movie."

TOPBLOWER was really worked up. "For generations millions of underprivileged kids who knew tougher times getting bare necessities of life, fought poverty, discrimination and language barriers to a finish and won" he continued.

"They didn't turn killers because the going was tough and luxuries were something found in the lost column. Teachers were tougher, school principals lost no decisions and parents thought a nightstick in the hands of a good cop was helpful in a case where their kids got screwball ideas about laws, rules, regulations and general behavior.

"Today more people hit the ceiling if a cop slams a kid on the backside with his club than when the same kid bops teacher, leers at a cop and jabs a knife into somebody strolling through a park on a summer night.

"I ain't saying we kids didn't have battles. We had plenty. But we depended on our fists and personal guts, not chains, zipguns, masks, soft treatment by Officer Kelly and a year's supply of psychiatrists if we stabbed people wholesale. Know what's responsible for kid punks? It's the adults. Too many scream, 'Don't lay a hand on my kid,' 'I demand that teacher be fired' and 'Let's have economy' when somebody proposes a police force big enough to win a war with the juvenile bums."

HUNTINGTON HARTFORD, of famed supermarket family, is building a multimillion dollar vacation paradise for "discriminating clientel" in the Bahamas. The missues wants to know whether, as a faithful wire-wagon pusher through supermarket alleys, she comes under that head.

Soviet papers now broadcast the claim that U. S., Britain and France caused World War II. Hitler, it would seem, was Little Lord Fauntleroy and the Russian pact with Shickelgruber and Mussolini was a figment of imagination.

A sociologist blames New York kid outrages on the fact "new immigrants live in tangle of nothingness." "They do badly in school, dislike authority and feel frustrated," he adds. The baloney content in this is extra high. Almost all kids dislike authority, loathe school work and feel frustrated. (Ya mean they should all leer at the law, turn punks and demand more closeup photographs!)

Lousing Up The Picnic Grounds

New Bill Opens Union Books

By Victor Riesel

Few realize it but there's an investigation in the future of every labor official who so much as handles a dues stamp or collects on a 10 - cent expense chit for a phone call.

Victor Riesel

From now on every union official, elected or appointed, must show his personal as well as his union financial records to a new set of federal examiners.

Hereafter every labor leader — be he shop stewart of international chief—can be sued by any of his duespayers who believes he has pushed them around or thinks the official has betrayed a local or national union.

This may cost hundreds of union officials their jobs and hard cash to boot — especially if any of it is booty.

The end is near for dummy unions — the paper locals of recent infamy, set up and bought and sold like businesses.

BRIBE TAKERS, shakedown artists and blackmailers, abusing their union office by abusing the morality on which trade unionism should rest, can be sued and forced to turn over their mulcted money to the union treasury.

Actually these are just a few of the dramatic changes to be wrought by the new labor law. No one really knows how hard its more than 100 points in seven sections of 29 tightly printed pages will hit the musclehoods of the land.

Look at the section which directs all union officers and union employes who handles union funds to be bonded. This section forces an investigation of hundreds of thousands of officials by independent, private agencies.

What has been overlooked is that this part of the law says that the officer, not the office, must be bonded. This means that Joe Jones, the president of the union, must be bonded personally.

It does not mean that a bonding company can simply write out a bond covering the office of the presidency of the union.

If the president, Joe Jones, qualifies, he is bonded. If he retires, his successor must be probed and qualify. If the officer doesn't qualify under the standards set by the U. S. Treasury Department for bonding, then the officer must quit.

Under these standards, no man with a criminal record qualifies. If he is in union office now, he goes out if he can't be bonded.

Look at the McClellan committee hearings and see for yourselves how many Teamster officials are charged with having criminal records or associating with those who do.

It is considered doubtful by some lawmakers to whom I spoke that many of those hundreds who took the Fifth Amendment can qualify for bonding either. This means an automatic wholesale cleansing of mob infiltrated unions.

THEN THERE IS the complete filing of financial reports by unions and by every single union official or employe except those in purely clerical or custodial jobs. These papers must be made out on standards acceptable to Certified Public Accountants.

In the past, the Taft-Hartley law did not call for the Labor Department to police such reports. Now they must be accurate. The U.S. secretary of labor has the power and duty to inspect books to make certain that suspicious documents are honest.

As for the officials themselves, they must file the full record of every conflict of interest — even whether they bought real estate or stocks at the suggestion of an employer with whom they deal in the name of the union or took a car at Christmas.

And just to hit a few highlights until a further piercing analysis of the bill, let me report, for example, that any rank - and - filer who believes that he has had his bill of rights violated can sue the union and its officers four months after he has made his official protest to the union headquarters.

There must be democratic union elections. An opposition candidate now has the right to look at the membership list. So has a rank-and-filer who wants to know who his union brothers are — if there are any, or if he is in a paper local.

EVERY UNION MEMBER now has Hyde Park corner rights. He can speak out, denounce his leadership and their policies not only on the union floor but anywhere and in any political campaign.

The greatest philosophical change is the acknowledgement by law that even under the friendliest and most paternal and democratic of governments, there is a bill of rights in a constitution. This protects the citizenry.

Now the union member individually has that protection too against those who might abuse their labor leadership.

Politics Plus Coddling

By Raymond Moley

A count of 22,000 felonies by youths between 16 and 20, and the more shocking total of 14,700 felonies by children under 16 is the disgraceful harvest of politics and sentimentality.

Politics, to grab manageable votes, opened the doors. A false theory of the origins of evil which is the creed of certain welfare workers did the rest.

The result was dramatically stated by Msgr. Joseph A. McCaffery, for 30 years chaplain of the fine New York Police Department, in a sermon preached at the funeral of an innocent 16-year-old victim of a gang of youthful hoodlums:

"It is not necessary for the city to declare a curfew. Armed juvenile gangsters have already taken care of that. The people are already afraid to go out at night."

This is the literal truth. And it has been true for several years while candidates for governor, including Nelson Rockefeller, and for mayor, including Robert Wagner, have been pleading for votes in the very communities in which crime is breeding.

MSGR. McCAFFERY said further that "coddlers" are responsible. And he named "lenient judges, oversympathetic youth board consultants, professional do-gooders, and sob sisters, male and female."

These people "seem obsessed with the senseless theory that there is no such thing as a bad boy. It would be as senseless to say that there is no such thing as a mad dog."

No one is against the building of playgrounds. But New York playgrounds are now danger spots. One Puerto Rican gangster said: "If anybody is looking for anybody around here you look in the playground. Everybody there is hot and full of beer, and maybe high, and things happen."

New York has a so-called Youth Board, which employs a large number of social workers. When a recent killing took place, the board "threw extra social workers into the area," no doubt armed with pencils and notebooks.

"Treaties" are negotiated by the so-called authorities with gangs, just as if they were Indian tribes or foreign nations. The Youth Board has a large number of young employes who join gangs, not to "spy" but to use "good offices" with the members.

The great influx of Puerto Ricans, now numbering 700,000, into New York has been encouraged by the two men who represented East Harlem in Congress for many years, Fiorello La Guardia and Vito Marcantonio, and both profited by their solid vote.

HARLEM ITSELF has received the tender ministrations of politicians for a long time.

While La Guardia was mayor the police were so restricted that they lived in fear of their lives in that area.

The police, who are willing if permitted to use force to meet force, should be freed from political and welfare restrictions.

The coddling has gone on a long time until the atmosphere of New York is full of rot.

This writer was research director of the New York State Crime Commission in the last two administrations of Gov. Al Smith.

One of the members, a noted social worker, insisted that there be a "case study" of the juvenile delinquents.

This was conducted with the usual rigmarole of "environmental conditions," etc.

Another member of the commission, when the "survey" was completed said he was "for it," although he hadn't read it but insisted that its chief conclusion must be that there should be more boys' clubs. He himself was head of a newsboys' home.

This represents the "scientific" basis of the so-called "environmental" theory of crime and sin.

It happens that after research extending over 30 years, Prof. Sheldon Glueck and his wife, Eleanor, have fairly well disposed of the "environmental" theory. But it still dominates the "do-gooders" and political panderers in New York. And so it will, until a desperate citizenry demands something better.

Unfinished Job

By David Lawrence

New Labor Law Misses Certain Abuses

It would be unfortunate if the country got the impression that the new law just passed by Congress to provide certain labor reforms is really a cure for all the many abuses that have been uncovered in labor union practices.

David Lawrence

The new legislation, for instance, contains a "bill of rights" guaranteeing free speech in labor union meetings for members and providing for secret ballots when officers are elected or assessments are imposed but it says absolutely nothing about the most important of all civil rights in the employment field — the right to join or to refuse to join a labor union.

Thus, in free America today, a supergovernment of private citizens can keep anyone from working in a chosen trade unless he or she accepts the union's dictation.

The employer is coerced under penalty of a costly strike to agree by contract to fire any worker who doesn't join a union shortly after being hired.

This form of compulsion is, unfortunately, permitted under the Taft-Hartley Act passed in 1947 and it might be thought that, with all the talk about "labor reform," some start would have been made by Congress in the new law to emancipate those who are held under such bondage in present day labor unions.

THE NEW LEGISLATION is good so far as it goes in seeking to punish racketeering, fraud or violence and to eliminate coercive tactics inside unions, including the misuse of dues money by unscrupulous labor leaders.

It is significant that the labor union leaders who declare that only a few persons are racketeers do not seem ready to accept a federal system for the detection and punishment of such crimes.

It is argued that, because most labor union officers are honest, no such legislation as has just been passed is necessary. Actually, by the same process of reasoning there would not be a justification for any criminal laws since the number of offenders has always been relatively small compared to the law abiding population.

The investigating committee of the Senate under the superb leadership of Sen. John McClellan, (D-Ark) has uncovered many abuses in the operation of labor unions by officers. The public has been horrified to learn the facts about the misuse of union funds and the graft in "blackmail picketing" of innocent employers not involved in a strike.

Some of the labor leaders who spent Labor Day denouncing the new law do not realize how far down in the esteem of labor union members themselves labor union officers in many parts of the country have fallen.

Nor is it realized how deeply resentful the wives and families of workers feel because of the misuse of union dues.

WHEN LABOR UNIONS originally succeeded, first under the Wagner Act and later under the Taft-Hartley Act, in putting the federal government into the business of supervising the collective bargaining process, it was inevitable that subsequent laws would be passed exercising the regulatory power still further.

Now under the latest law each union must file detailed financial reports annually with the Department of Labor in Washington and furnish data also on any loans or payments made in connection with labor union activity.

Many trade union activities are listed and made the subject of criminal charges by the Department of Justice.

Naturally, many of the labor leaders don't want any federal supervision but, as has often been said, with power goes responsibility. The federal government now requires labor union officers to show themselves responsible to the members.

For the first time, for instance, every labor union member can demand from his union a copy of the agreements with the employer — these cannot be kept secret. Also, the right of the member to sue when his grievance against the union has not been settled is specifically provided for in the new statute.

CERTAINLY the new law means a lot of paper work for the unions but the same thing happened when laws were passed to deal with unscrupulous men in the corporations which engaged in monopolistic practices.

Laws of a restrictive nature that are burdensome were passed in the 1930's after congressional exposure of those officers in financial institutions who played fast and loose with the public's money.

It took several years before some necessary revisions were made. Undoubtedly labor unions will win some revisions in a few years when the new statutes have had a chance to operate. For, in the haste of the joint conference committee's work last week, there were some clumsily worded paragraphs inserted which the courts or Congress itself will have to clarify.

The new law does credit to the majority coalition which passed it in response to a nationwide demand.

On the whole, it is a constructive piece of legislation — the first in 12 years. But it is only a start toward the establishment of a system of fair and impartial supervision of labor management relations by the federal government.

Letter To The Editor

Two articles on the editorial page of Labor Day's issue impel the writer to answer.

First is the top editorial, which seeks to disparage honest organized labor, contending the day was made a holiday for all segments of labor.

The founder of Labor Day was Peter McGuire, a member of the Carpenters Union. The labor leaders in the latter part of the last century contended a day should be set aside for the people who perform the work of this nation in an honest and upright way.

There was certainly no intention to include the blackleg, the scab, the Pinkerton assassins, or those hirelings of industry such as the company spy, or those minions of management, whose sole purpose was to undermine and weaken honest labor, or to management, with its Girdlers, and Avery's and other arch foes of labor organized or un-organized.

To attempt to deny the labor movement credit for Labor Day is akin to denying the churches credit for this nation being a Christian nation or the ex-servicemen's organizations credit for the various veterans' benefits that have been put upon the statutes. It just doesn't make sense.

Secondly: The man from Chester does not deny the committee's in the potters' conventions are handpicked. The writer heard Mr. Wheatley admit last Wednesday in City Hall that such was the case. Wheatley went further. He stated that only one man did the picking until a few years ago. And as he was on the Executive Board, he should know.

As to our conventions being managed democratically a few years ago, the only change in the pattern is that they have gotten worse. Do you recall, Elmer, when our 1948 convention turned our entire assets over to two men?

The writer is presently engaged, with others, in a struggle to have our Constitution enforced, by having a "vote of the trade" on the proposed "country club" eight miles out on Route 7. We are being denied the right of referendum by the people who control the Potters Herald. It is possible we shall have to go to court again to make our high salaried executives learn the English language and get a ruling on a dictatorial assumption of censorship.

The 1958 convention authorized our Executive Board to secure options on property for future reference. Instead, the board bought outright not one but two pieces of property miles apart. How sensible is this?

Today's Review contains many notices of local unions urging their members to vote on pension's for our officials. This Board has ruled that East Liverpool locals must vote at our headquarters. Can you imagine, Elmer, how many people will trek 8 miles into the country when they know their votes will be nullified by the questionable votes of farflung locals? Remember Hamilton, Canada, and Metuchen, New Jersey, and the voting frauds uncovered there?

Names, people and issues change as the years roll on. Men assume arbitrary powers and someone has to cut 'em down to size. Personalities, as such, are of no consequence to this writer. Principles are first and foremost.

Perhaps you are unaware, Elmer, that our union has been spending more of our money than we have been paying in as dues and assessments; and this does not include strike benefits. This fact alone should make you and others think twice about this ill-conceived, un-necessary plan to erect a country club.

The word "unity", Elmer, is fraught with implications. If no person has been deprived of their rights, if full and open discussion is permitted, if complete knowledge of all that is involved, then the will of the majority should prevail. But when people are deprived of these rights, a censorship imposed upon us, the laws of our union violated by the top officials, common decency demands we do all in our power to end this tyranny.

Senate Eyes Trip To Hawaii-Bill For Taxpayers

WASHINGTON (AP)—A junket to surpass all junkets—a free trip to Hawaii for the whole Senate—is getting enthusiastic consideration from some senators.

The taxpayers would foot the bill under terms of a resolution drafted by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. It calls for an outlay of $200,000 to cover members' expenses on the trip.

Gov. William F. Quinn of Hawaii cabled the invitation for all the senators to take part in a thanksgiving celebration for the 50th state. The Senate Republican Policy Committee received it Tuesday with "hilarity and exuberance of spirit," Dirksen reported.

If the trip materializes, Dirksen said he doesn't expect senators would be required to bother turning in expense accounts.

The GOP leader added that from Hawaii "it isn't very far around to Alaska" and some senators might want to go there too.

Council Meets Briefly Then Slates Another

Unable to muster enough votes to enact legislation on a single reading, City Council adjourned Tuesday night after a brief session, but agreed to meet again next Monday night at 8.

The councilmen knew late last week they would be unable to approve any ordinances or resolutions at last night's session for lack of sufficient votes, but decided to go ahead with the event anyway to take care of any other business.

Action is pending on at least three measures: An appropriation measure to provide $2,000 to $2,500 for seal-coating and blacktop pavement of outer St. Clair Ave.; first enabling legislation for relocation and repair of the Carpenters Run trunk line sewer, and a bill to finance attendance of two firemen at a state arson school.

Although at least six votes are required to approve legislation on a single reading under suspension of rules, only five voting members attended last night. They were Councilmen George E. Willshaw, W. E. Kaiser, Samuel B. Webber, A. Stanley Kidder and Robert W. Sample Jr. President B. E. Warner, who presided, does not have a vote except to break a tie.

Council excused Councilman William Y. Orr, who is on vacation, and Councilman H. A. Tullis, who was officiating at a Little League affair.

Next Monday's meeting technically will be a continuation of last night's session, as Council recessed, instead of adjourning. A caucus at 7:30 is expected to precede the next meeting to allow the members to discuss the new legislation.

Prior to the regular meeting, Council conferred with representatives of the State, Columbia and American Theaters, who asked repeal of the city's 3 per cent amusement tax levied on their admissions. Samuel M. Reichblum, manager of the Columbia, acted as principal spokesman.

As repeal of the tax would cut the city's income about $7,000 a year, their request was referred to the finance committee, headed by Willshaw. About $3,000 of the total comes from the three movie houses. The tax costs each about $100 a month, the spokesmen estimated.

Reichblum presented Council with a list of 28 Ohio cities that have repealed similar taxes in the last few years. Eight others have reduced the amount of the tax, he added.

"The theater is an integral part of the community; it helps bring people into the downtown area, particularly on weekends," he said.

Like other theaters across the nation, the local movie houses have been suffering financially for several years, Reichblum said. If Council repeals the tax, the $100-a-month saving will help the theaters meet their overhead, he added. At present, the theaters absorb the tax; it is not added on top of admission prices, Reichblum said. The federal amusement tax was repealed about four years ago, he explained.

The regular meeting opened with the invocation by Kaiser, followed by the reading of the minutes of the Aug. 17 and 24 sessions. Nine members of the High School Key Club attended. They were welcomed on Council's behalf by Warner.

Sports Shirts' Style At 'Hot' Council Event

Some meetings of City Council are hot literally and some are hot figuratively. Last night was one of the literally hot sessions.

In an unusual unanimity in attire, every councilman and the clerk showed up for the session in a short-sleeved sports shirt, open at the neck. Sticking to a more accustomed costume, both Mayor Fred P. Lawrence and Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross wore dress shirts, complete with ties.

Two electric fans were used in a vain attempt to cool the chamber — one at the rear exhausting hot air and one in a window, drawing in the air from W. 6th St.

Researchers Claim

Salt Your Tomato Juice? It Doesn't Cut Sweetness

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Do you put salt in your tomato juice to cut down the sweetness?

Well, you're in for a disappointment according to a psychological study of taste reported today by two experts with the U.S. Army's Quartermaster Food and Container Institute.

Using 40 military and civilian tasters, the experts tried to find out what links there are between sweetness, bitterness, sourness and saltiness.

Salt, it seems, has little effect on a sweet solution, explained Joseph M. Kamen and Francis J. Pilgrim at a meeting of the American Psychological Assn.

But as you would suspect, sweetness decreases the intensity of bitterness, as in adding sugar to coffee, the researchers said.

Sweetness also decreases the intensity of sourness.

Sourness seems to enhance or boost the power of bitterness. But sour tasting material doesn't seem to either enhance or depress the sweetness of a solution.

The association ended its annual conference today.

In paper on hypnosis, Dr. Theodore X. Barber of Harvard University pointed out that a relatively small number of people can be hypnotized.

"I have found that even when a number of skillful hypnotists attempt to induce hypnosis, only a small proportion (25 per cent) of a sample of normal population can be hypnotized . . ." he said.

Why can't some people be hypnotized? They just can't concentrate well enough, Dr. Barber explained.

"A good hypnotic subject does not need a hypnotist to enter trance or hypnosis," he said. "He is ready to concentrate intensely on some things and to become completely unresponsive to everything else long before he meets a hypnotist."

Quota Chooses Delegates For Convention At Dayton

Delegates to the 6th District conference Oct. 2-4 at Dayton were elected at the luncheon meeting of the Quota Club Tuesday at Travelers Hotel. Twenty-four attended.

Miss Justine Miller and Mrs. Mildred McKim will be delegates and Miss Gladys DeBolt and Mrs. Sallie O'Hanlon alternates.

Business was conducted by Miss Miller, president, with reports given by Mrs. Eleanor Boice, secretary, Mrs. Margaret Duffy, treasurer, and Mrs. Edna Jones, corresponding secretary.

Fifty dollars, along with the money contributed in lieu of a Christmas gift exchange, was allotted for the Kent State Scholarship Fund.

An invitation was read from the Salem Club to attend an "Inter-City" party Sept. 22 at the new Christian Church. Reservations may be made with Miss DeBolt, inter-club relations chairman.

Communications were read from the Child Counseling Center, now entering its sixth year of community service, and from Mrs. Margretta Claflin of Columbus, retiring international president, expressing thanks for cooperation during her term.

The speech clinic will open Oct. 4 at Westgate School.

The president gave a partial report on the recent international convention in Washington. She asked all committee chairmen to arrange for individual meetings very soon in preparation for the yearly program.

The next meeting will be Sept. 22 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Horsley of Fisher Ave.

WCTU Will Hold Parley Thursday

The annual county convention of the WCTU will be held Thursday at the East Palestine United Presbyterian Church, with the East Palestine Union as hosts.

The session will begin at 10 a. m. Reports and committee meetings will take up the morning followed by a noon luncheon in the church.

Mrs. Harold H. Brown of Mansfield will be guest speaker at a program to begin at 2. This will be open to the public.

500 In Delaware Hear DiSalle On His Tax Program

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — A crowd of 500 here Tuesday night heard Gov. Michael V. DiSalle explain his new third-of-a-billion-dollar tax program.

DiSalle promised that at the end of his four-year term, the state debt will be less and "we will not ask you for any added obligations."

He predicted that "Ohio will be a state that will be sound and on a cash basis." The governor said Ohio ranked 45th in the nation in rate of taxation per $100 income "with not a single major state below Ohio." Forty-three states hiked taxes this year.

DiSalle insisted there is no waste or extravagance in the current biennial (two-year) budget.

The governor told of finding Ohio in very bad financial condition when he took over last January. He said financial balance achieved at the expense of schools, the aged, dependent children and others is not an honest balance.

Chamber Hears 1st Plans For 3rd Rural-Urban Day

First plans for the third annual "Rural - Urban Day" observance Oct. 14, in which East Liverpool businessmen and their wives will tour representative Columbiana County farms and then be entertained at a country-style dinner, were explained to the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce at its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon.

A co-operative effort of the Chamber and a rural committee, the first of the exchange of visits between rural and city dwellers was held in 1957.

In the first visit, an East Liverpool delegation toured farms in the southern county area to observe modern farming practices. A dinner followed. In the second tour last year, the rural residents were taken on a trip through East Liverpool business and manufacturing facilities and then were entertained at dinner.

Harold Allison is chairman of the Chamber's agricultural committee. The co-operating rural committee, which is comprised of representatives of several groups, includes Herman Reuter, soil conservationist, and Floyd Lower, county agriculture agent, both of Lisbon.

The tour date falls on a Wednesday, when stores close at noon. The trip will begin in the early afternoon, ending with an evening dinner program. Details will be worked out in later meetings of the committees representing the two co-operating groups.

As yesterday's board meeting was the first since June, a report of the Chamber's summer activities was given by T. Fred Edwards, president, and E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager. It was announced that the Ohio Chamber of Commerce has scheduled a meeting Nov. 17-18 at Columbus.

A report was given by the public education committee on the welcome to new teachers in the East Liverpool and Beaver Local systems which it arranged Aug. 31 in co-operation with the East Liverpool Teachers Association. The teachers were taken on an auto tour of the city's scenic, industrial, business and civic highlights and then entertained at a luncheon. A letter of appreciation for the program was read from School Supt. Ralph W. Betts.

Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the highway committee, reminded members of the luncheon his committee was to give today at noon at the Travelers Hotel for William McKenna, new head of the State Highway Department's Division 11 office at New Philadelphia.

Reporting for the safety committee, Chandler listed its plans to sponsor the local observance of National Fire Prevention Week Oct. 4-11. Alvin Arner heads the safety committee.

The board approved a resolution congratulating the drill team of VFW Post 66 on winning its second national championship in competition a week ago in Los Angeles. A copy of the resolution and a congratulatory letter will be sent to the post.

The board also voted to co-operate with the sponsoring committee in the second annual School Science Fair, scheduled to be held next spring.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Now I know what the prisoner of Zenda felt like. I'm locked in my room—and I do mean locked.

I went steady with this boy for a month. Last week I met another fellow I liked so I told my steady we weren't going steady any more. He got nasty and called me a vulgar name. I lost my temper and slapped his face. His glasses fell off and broke on the cement sidewalk.

He went right to my house, handed the broken glasses to Mother and told her I was a maniac. My mother put the glasses in Daddy's dinner plate and boy did I ever catch it! My father has to pay $18 for new glasses and I can't go any place but to church for a month.

You'd think my parents would be proud of me but instead they're treating me like a criminal. Is this fair?—BEHIND BARS.

Dear Behind Bars: The only unfair part of the story is that YOU aren't paying the $18 out of your allowance or money earned.

You should not have slapped the boy's face. If you had turned on your heel and left the cad standing there, you'd have maintained your dignity and been a real lady. And a FREE one—instead of a cooped-up chicken.

Trapped By Rat

Dear Ann: In January I started to go with a man who said he was divorced. Three weeks ago a woman phoned and said she was Neal's wife. I thought she was a crank so I hung up on her.

That evening I told Neal about the call, thinking he'd laugh it off. Instead he told me he was still married but "working on a divorce."

Last night we were supposed to go to the ball game but he phoned at 6 p.m. to say he had to leave town on business. About 11 p.m. I got suspicious and phoned his apartment. A woman answered. I asked who it was and she said: "I'm Neal's wife. What's so odd about a woman living with her husband?"

I asked if they were splitting up and she said, "He tells that to all the girls. He's a great kidder. Don't take him seriously, Dear." I almost died.

What kind of game are these two slobs playing anyway?— BEE-WILDERED.

-:-

Dear B.: Sounds like a game of cat and mouse. The mouse seems to be acting like a rat—and the cat doesn't object. Where'd you find this gem anyway?

Next time check more carefully on your playmates.

To Each His Own

Dear Ann: We live next door to some people who are very difficult to figure out. My husband said last night, "Those characters are subjects for Ann Landers." So—I'm writing to see if Ann Landers can figure them out.

They haven't painted their home in 10 years—won't spend the money. I'm quite sure they don't own a lawn mower because they always borrow ours. They sit in the dark half the time to "save the juice." Yet, get this, Ann, they drive a '58 Imperial and last week they bought a boat for $6,000!

Are we crazy or are they?—NO SIG.

Dear No Sig: Why does anybody have to be crazy? This is merely an example of differences in values. To some people a car is the most important thing in the world. Others put everything on their backs. Still others buy rare books. It has no relation to right or wrong, crazy or sane.

It would be a pretty dull world if everyone's values were the same, wouldn't it?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Time Change Is Delayed At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE—Action to return to Eastern Standard Time this month was delayed by Council at a meeting Tuesday night, but a motion to prepare legislation was approved.

The motion was submitted by Councilman D. B. Davis, but most of the councilmen indicated they are not wholeheartedly in support of an end of "fast" time Sept. 27.

Davis said he submitted the motion in the interests of school children who would have to go to classes in fog or early morning semi-darkness on a "fast" time schedule.

Councilmen pointed out the Board of Education has already taken care of the problem by placing the schools on standard time Sept. 27 regardless of Council's action.

The Ministerial Association and the board previously requested Council to have the city return to standard time earlier than the latter part of October, as now scheduled.

The Rev. Robert Shoff, president of the ministerial group, said last night the association has "no ax to grind" and wants the early return "only in the interests of the community."

Council may discuss the matter at the next meeting Sept. 21.

Councilman Frank Early was reelected a member of the Police Pension Board, and Councilman Paul J. Adams was elected to replace Ernest Coff. Early and Councilman Charles Kelley were named to the Firemen's Pension Board.

Council approved second reading of an East Ohio Gas Co. schedule which extends the present rates until a revision is adopted at Cleveland, where city interests are opposing an increase.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post advised Council it is no longer interested in obtaining a city-owned lot on W. Main St. for a new post home, indicated plans for a new building have been tabled.

Health Commissioner James Vocature reported on the compulsory immunization program provided by state law, and said cards are being distributed today for parents to fill out, advising the status of the youngsters in regard to immunization already given or scheduled.

Vocature said a mass immunization clinic will be held later for youngsters whose families can prove the need.

Vocature left today for Columbus for the annual health commissioners' convention.

Atty. Jack Cohen, city solicitor, is suffering from a back ailment, and was represented by Atty. James Allison.

8 Girls Enter Beaver Local Queen Contest

Eight girls have registered so far in the Beaver Local Boosters Club's Tri - State Harvest Fair queen contest, it was announced at a meeting of the club Tuesday night at the high school.

The queen will be crowned Sept. 26, the last day of the Booster Club fair at the high school. Harry Matheny, general chairman of the fair Sept. 23-26, outlined plans for the event.

George Gaydos, chairman, said the membership drive will get under way this week. Mrs. George Gaydos reported on the booth sponsored by the club at the County Fair.

Foyn Wright announced the football programs have been printed, and will be available at the first home game with Irondale Sept. 26.

Wright and Earl Broadbent were named to represent the club on the Beaver Local Athletic Association.

Plans for the purchase of another vehicle to transport football players to practice were outlined.

A special meeting of the trustees will be held Thursday night at 8 at the high school to discuss insurance for the practice vehicles.

George Dunn, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Oct. 13 with Mrs. Leola Barton and Mrs. Mildred Emmerling in charge of refreshments.

Coach Will Address Lisbon Kiwanis Club

LISBON—Edwin "Bud" Bucher, football coach at Lisbon High School, will be guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday noon at the Christian Church diningroom.

He will discuss the coming football season and his team's prospects in the Tri-County League.

The annual sausage and pancake dinner has been set for Thursday, Sept. 17, at the Methodist Church. Proceeds will be used by the club for underprivileged children in the community.

Reckless Driver Fined

LISBON—Wilfred L. Rudy of R. D. 2 was fined $15 and costs Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald when he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless operation.

2nd Charge Filed In Family Quarrel

A man accused of entering a neighbor's apartment in pursuit of his wife during a family quarrel Sunday night drew a fine of $50 and costs today in Municipal Court on an assault charge, then almost immediately was served with another warrant alleging trespassing.

The defendant is Carl Gray, 208 W. 4th St., who pleaded guilty before Judge George L. Brokaw on a charge he struck his neighbor, Mrs. Catherine M. Lovejoy, also of 208 W. 4th St.

Police said Gary's wife fled to Mrs. Lovejoy's apartment as a climax of a quarrel with her husband. But the husband followed, resulting in the charge filed by Mrs. Lovejoy, officers said.

Gray was released to raise $56 to pay the fine and costs on the first charge. When he returned, he was served with a warrant that had been sworn out, meanwhile, by Thomas Walsh, Mrs. Lovejoy's son. It alleges that he trespassed in the apartment. Gray posted a $31 bond for a hearing Saturday morning on the second charge.

Power Failure Halts Hookstown Council

Due to a power failure, only a brief meeting of the Georgetown Borough Council was held Tuesday evening at the school hall, Mrs. Myrtle Alger, council secretary, said. Routine business, including payment of bills, was conducted. Power was also off in Hookstown from 6 to 10 p. m., she reported.

Failure of a 23,000-volt cable at Midland was blamed by the Duquesne Light Co.

Lights were out along Route 30 and at Laughlin Corners, Mill Creek and Georgetown, a spokesman said. Due to the equipment failure, no electricity was received by feeder lines to the Hookstown substation.

White Sox Begin Last Long Road Trip With 5-Game Edge

Wynn Pitches 19th Victory, 3-2 Over A's

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago's White Sox set off on their last long road trip today, packing a five-game lead with 16 to play. And that chuckle in the background is Early Wynn—the guy who was too old to be much help in the American League pennant race.

It was spring when most of the guys who pick the pennant winners made that mistake. Casey Stengel and his New York Yankees were going to win again in the AL. The White Sox, with Wynn drawing spot assignments at most, might finish second, but more likely would come in third, behind Detroit or Cleveland.

Now it's September and Wynn, at 39 years, eight months and three days, has won 19, tops in the AL, and has beaten every club in the league for the first time since 1956.

He did it Tuesday night, winning his third in a row with a 3-2, 10-inning decision over Kansas City. It was the only game scheduled in the majors.

It also was the White Sox' 86th victory—eliminating all the other clubs except second-place Cleveland and officially ending the Yankees' run as champions.

The seventh-place A's, who now have lost 11 in a row, were the only club Wynn hadn't beaten this season. Fact is, they had whipped him three times this year.

They almost got him this time, too. Shut out on three singles for eight innings, the A's scored twice in the ninth for a 2-1 lead before the White Sox tied it and then put it away in the 10th for their 33rd victory in 43 one-run decisions and their 12th in 14 extra-inning games.

The White Sox open a nine-game trip through the East with Bob Shaw (14-6) facing Washington's Tex Clevenger (7-3) tonight. The Indians are at Baltimore for a twi-night doubleheader, with Jack Harshman (5-9) and Jim Perry (10-7) opposing the Orioles' Milt Pappas (14-7) and Hec Brown (9-7).

Toronto, With Six Lettermen Back, Will Rely On Speed In '59 Season

Toronto High's Red Knights — once an area grid powerhouse but a victim of manpower scarcity in recent lean years — figure to improve on last year's record of three victories in nine games this autumn under youthful Coach Earl Biederman.

Biederman, one of the district's youngest mentors, will field a fast squad bolstered with six returning lettermen this fall but his starting line will weigh less than the backfield.

The six lettermen inherited from last season include fleet Bobby Edwards, one of the Ohio Valley's fastest halfbacks, and hard-running fullback George Fisher.

Size, or rather the lack of it, will be a problem Biederman must overcome but the Red Knights will have plenty in the speed department to begin making payments on some long standing football debts.

Besides Edwards and Fisher, other returning lettermen include Jim Browning, a 5-10, 150-pound end; Lou Ellen, 160-pound guard; Carl Kestner, 160-pound center; Leroy Rosenbergon, 150 - pound guard-tackle, and Bobby Montgomery, a fast and shifty 170-pound halfback.

Fisher will be the main cog in Biederman's speedy backfield and a quick glance at last year's statistics indicates his ability. In 95 attempts in 1958, Fisher ran for 487 yards and three touchdowns in averaging 5.1 yards per carry.

Edwards, a lightweight at 135-pounds, makes up for his lack of size with blazing speed and is a threat to go the entire distance on every carry, Biederman pointed out. In 98 carries last year, Edwards averaged 4.7 yards per carry and scored five touchdowns.

Biederman lost nine players through graduation and most are candidates for freshmen teams in area colleges. The graduates included giant tackle Jack Kirkpatrick, now at Miami; tackle Bob Carman, Wabash College; Jack Kestner, Kent State; end Jim Brown, Kenyon College, and Jack McCrea, Baldwin-Wallace College.

John Loughridge takes over the quarterback spot of the graduated John Bucey who also enrolled at Kent State. Biederman tags Loughridge as a fair passer and said he probably will draw the opening game assignment.

The Red Knights will initiate the 1959 season in the Blue and White Nonpareil Club's annual football preview Friday at Patterson Field against Beaver Local.

Two important dates on the Toronto schedule include games with Wellsville Sept. 25 and the season's finale at East Liverpool Nov. 13. The Toronto opener is at Carrollton, Sept. 18.

Biederman, who was an All-Lake Erie League end selection during high school at Shaker Heights in Cleveland, was graduated from Miami University and played football there under Ara Parseghian, now head coach of Northwestern University.

His line coach is Paul Kalivoda, former Irondale and Dillonvale mentor. Nelson Freeland, Denny Williams and Merle Smith are other assistants.

Landis Draws Lopez Praise

CHICAGO (AP) — The go-go Chicago White Sox, heading for the American League pennant, have a couple of real valuable players in shortstop Luis Aparicio and second baseman Nellie Fox.

But don't foreget the guy who patrols the outer garden, says Manager Al Lopez.

He is center fielder Jim Landis, one of the hottest hitters in the majors. Landis has been a main factor in Chicago's drive to a five-game lead in the American League pennant race.

Landis was batting a feeble .125 in May. Since then he has hit safely in 62 of 87 games and lifted his average to a respectable .280.

He has been batting at a .397 clip the last 17 games.

Last year Landis got hot in June and helped pull the Sox from last place to second.

Lopez, despite criticism when Landis was in a slump, has kept the 25-year-old outfielder playing regularly.

Power, Pitching Furnish Keys To Hopes Of Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Power and pitching furnish the keys to success or failure as the National League leading San Francisco Giants race in the stretch with 15 their magic number.

With 17 games remaining, 12 of them during this final home stand, San Francisco holds a three-game lead over both Milwaukee and Los Angeles.

So any combination of Giants victories and Milwaukee or Los Angeles losses adding up to 15 would bring the pennant.

During the home stand the San Franciscans must meet their three closest competitors starting today with the Pittsburgh Pirates and winding up next week with two games against Milwaukee and three against the Dodgers.

So Manager Bill Rigney carefully checks his pitching rotation and hopes the power will bust loose.

Reds Tip Their Hand On Hopes For Next Year

CHICAGO (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have tipped their hand a little on their hopes for next year's pitching.

The Reds, here today for the first of two doubleheaders with the Cubs, have with them a few of the prize throwers up from the farm clubs.

One of the best known prospects is Claude Osteen, a hometown Cincinnatian who was under the wing of Fred Hutchinson at Seattle of the Pacific Coast League before the manager took over the Reds at midseason.

Osteen had only an 8-10 record but his earned run average was 2.79.

Hutch said, "I have seen no 19-year-old with better potential than Osteen. He has the assortment of pitches and the poise. With experience, he'll be a good one in the majors."

Jim Bailey, younger brother of the Reds' veteran catcher, Ed Bailey, is another prime prospect with a 10-6 mark for Nashville of the Southern Assn., despite dropping his first three games of the season.

Mike Cuellar, 21-year-old southpaw who almost was on the Reds' squad this season, built up a 9-9 mark with Havana of the International League but had a good 2.84 earned run average.

Havana righthander Ted Weiand won 15 games in 25 decisions, with an ERA of 3.29.

The other hurlers slated to get a look at the big leagues, if not a chance to pitch for the balance of the season, are Whammy Douglas from Nashville and Jim Maloney from Topeka of the Three-I League.

For the Reds, who hit conspicuously well, future success seems to lie in acquiring some hot pitching. Those young rookies are the best prospects now.

In today's doubleheader with Chicago, the Reds nominated two righthanders, Bob Purkey and young Jay Hook, to pitch against Glen Hobbie and Dave Hillman.

PGA Selects 10 Ryder Cup Golfer

DALLAS Tex. (AP)—The PGA has formally named the 10 top U.S. golfers to try to get the Ryder Cup back from the British.

The men were picked Tuesday for the matches Nov. 7-8 in Palm Desert, Calif.

All but one of the 10 will compete in the Dallas Open starting here Friday.

Veterans on the squad are Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Jack Burke Jr. of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla.; Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y.; Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., and Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa.

Newcomers are Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N.C., Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., Bob Rosburg of Napa, Calif., and Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C.

During the 42-day meeting at Washington Park, track records were broken five times and tied five times.

Ex-Grid Coach Dies

MALTA, Ill. (AP) — George Veenker, 65, football coach at Iowa State from 1930 to 1935, then athletic director until his retirement in 1945, died of cancer Tuesday.

The first University of Pennsylvania football team in 1876 won one game and lost two, both to Princeton.

Indians Open 13-Game Trip In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Cleveland Indians haven't lost a game in three weeks—except to the Chicago White Sox.

Unfortunately, the Indians dropped five decisions to the White Sox during that span and now trail the American League leaders by five games. Since Aug. 19, Cleveland has won 13 games, while losing those five to Chicago.

Starting a 13-game road trip with a twi - night doubleheader against the Baltimore Orioles tonight, the Indians will be shooting to keep their winning pattern going. Cleveland is riding a four-game victory streak.

Jack Harshman (5-9) and Jim Perry (10-7) carry Cleveland's mound assignments tonight against Baltimore's Milt Pappas (14-7) and Hector (Skinny) Brown (9-7).

Cleveland faces an almost impossible uphill battle trying to catch the White Sox, who hold a four-game bulge in the "lost" column. But the Indians are reminded of the 1948 season when another Cleveland team staged a torrid September stretch drive to overtake the Boston Red Sox, winning the pennant in a blue-chips playoff game at Boston.

Can the Indians do it again?

"We're gonna try," says Manager Joe Gordon, who played a key role in the '48 race as the Tribe's second baseman. "It's a long shot chance because we've got fewer games left than in '48.

"But after the way this club kept bouncing back Monday (taking a doubleheader from Detroit, 15-14 and 6-5 with ninth-inning rallies), I'd say anything can happen.

"We're not beaten. We've just got to keep winning and forget about the White Sox."

In 1948 the Indians made up 4½ games in the space of 15 games, 13 of which they won. Now Cleveland has 18 left to play, while Chicago has 16.

Lightweight King, Canadian Champ To Clash Tonight

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both world lightweight champ Joe Brown and Gale Kerwin, holder of the Canadian welterweight crown, have their eyes on a title fight as they await their 10-round non-title bout here tonight.

They'll meet in the main event of a combined boxing - wrestling charity show at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum. Their scrap can be seen at 9 p.m. EST on (ABC) television.

Brown, with a 73-16-9 record (and two "no contest" fights), doesn't expect much trouble and is planning ahead to his title defense against Dave Charnley of Great Britain this fall in London or Houston, Tex.

Kerwin is also thinking about a title fight—against Brown at a later date. Absent from the ring for a year, he comes in with a 28-8-1 record and hopes to whip Brown, forcing him into a championship scrap.

He affects confidence he can score an upset.

Two former heavyweight champions will referee during the evening. Jack Dempsey has the Brown-Kerwin fight, and Jersey Joe Walcott will referee two wrestling matches.

Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves says he would need "a lot of lucky hits, bloops and leg hits to bat .400."

College Football Teams To Stress Aerial Game

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The attack phase of college football this year will spread teams hither and yon' and open more opportunities to exploit the passing game.

This much was promised before fall drills began since the experimental stage passed its tests with flying colors in spring practice.

Now, with a Sept. 18 or 19 opening date getting closer for many teams, and the big opener coming a week later, the varied formations and their attacks are starting to jell.

At Penn's camp in Hershey, Pa., Coach Steve Sebo has declared he will double his team's 1958 passing attack and Tuesday had quarterbacks Larry Purdy and George Koval doing all of the throwing.

Princeton Coach Dick Colman moved Mike Ippolito from blocking back to tailback to take advantage of his passing arm and had him throwing Tuesday.

North Carolina, with its "swinging end" offense to open up the attack, had quarterbacks Jack Cummings, Skip Clements and Ray Farris working on pass patterns. Michigan State's Dean Look put out the team's new double wing with its wingback in motion through its passing phase.

Wake Forest, determined to utilize the Atlantic Coast Conference's No. 2 1958 pass receiver in Pete Manning, worked on pass patterns while AAC neighbor Clemson stressed protection for quarterback Harvey White, its No. 1 passer last year.

Minnesota had soph quarterback Sanford Stephans, its top passer and fastest man, on the sidelines today after he twisted an ankle during drills.

UCLA's "W" formation and variations had a workout Tuesday as the Bruins prepared for their Friday, Sept. 18 night opener at home against Big Ten member Purdue.

I Won't Lose, Face Predicts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I'm just not going to lose this season. This is my year."

That's what bullpen Baron Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates says despite the lashing his pitching has taken of late.

The relief ace, who presently enjoys a 17-0 record, doesn't even consider the remote possibility of a loss seriously.

"The guys are taking pretty good care of me," said Face. "There have been some close calls, but they come up and get met out of trouble or come from behind and win the ball game for me."

Face has only 15 more games in which to get two more wins to tie the records of Carl Hubbell's major league mark of 24 straight in two season with the New York Giants in 1936 and 1937 and Rube Marquard's record of 19 straight in one season with the Giants in 1912.

Frequent Dizzy Spells Hit Ohio State Guard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Frequent dizzy spells afflicting Ohio State guard Mike Ingram may deal him and the Buckeyes a bad blow.

Tests will be made today in an attempt to determine the cause of Ingram's spells, suffered upon hard contact. Coach Woody Hayes said the condition may finish football for the highly-regarded Bellaire, Ohio, sophomore this season—if not for life.

Jim Lindner of Enon Valley, Pa., is heir apparent to Ingram's first-string position, based on his work in practices.

Drysdale Holds Dodgers' Hopes As They Face Phillies

Bucs-Giants, Braves-Cards Begin Series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale, the National League's No. 1 pitcher little more than a month ago, now is the No.1 guy on the spot as the pennant race turns into the final three weeks.

The big right-hander, whose sidearm stuff puffed Los Angeles into contention, hasn't won in a month. Unless he comes back, the Dodgers are dead.

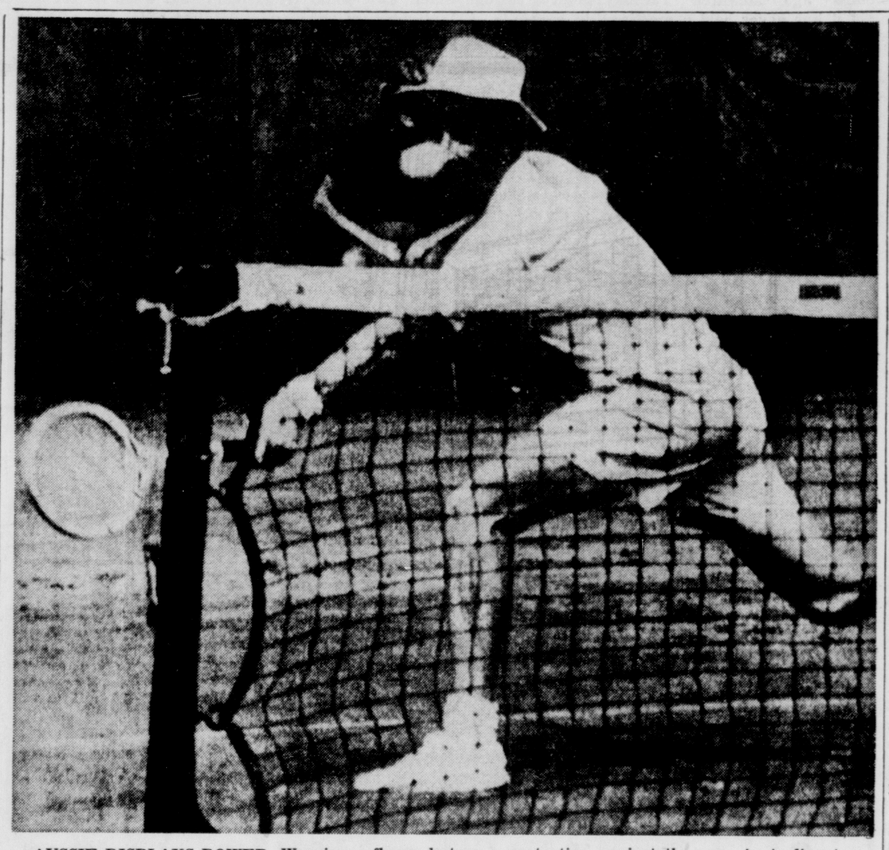
Since his last victory—a five-hit 4-2 job on Milwaukee that gave him seven in a row and pushed the Dodgers within a half-game of first place on Aug. 8—Drysdale has lost six straight and the Dodgers have skidded into a tie for second with Milwaukee, three games behind San Francisco.

Drysdale has failed to put away a complete game in six starts and twice has been a loser in relief. He has been charged with the loss in almost half of the Dodgers' defeats (15) in that span.

Now 15-12, Drysdale gets another crack at junking the slump tonight when the Dodgers open their final, two-game series with last-place Philadelphia at Los Angeles. Like the Giants and Braves, the Dodgers have 17 games remaining.

The Giants, with their three-game lead packed away in the lost column, open a two-game series with Pittsburgh at San Francisco while the Braves play the first of two with St. Louis at Milwaukee.

The American League race puts the two contenders on the road. Chicago's White Sox, padding their lead to five games with a 3-2, 10-inning victory over Kansas City in the only game scheduled Tuesday night, open a nine-game trip at Washington. Second-place Cleveland gets started on a 13-game tour with a twi-night pair at Baltimore.



AUSSIE DISPLAYS POWER. Wearing a floppy hat as a protection against the sun, Australian tennis ace Rod Laver dashes across the court to make a backhand return during play in the National singles championships at Forest Hills, N. Y., Tuesday. Laver displayed plenty of power in defeating Whitney Reed, U. S. collegiate champ. (UPI Telephoto)

Make Sure You Aim At Game, Ohio Wildlife Division Warns

PUTDOOR NOTES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Make sure it is game before you aim."

With the Ohio squirrel season opening in Zone 1 Sept. 11, and Zone 2 Sept. 15, that can be pretty good advice.

The Ohio Division of Wildlife is hopeful that if every hunter follows the advice, casualties from gunfire can be reduced drastically. But based on happenings of other years, someone is bound to be mistaken for a bushy-tail, as strange as that might seem.

The hunting zones are outlined on the Game Digest given to each hunter when he buys his license. Zone 1 embraces all or part of 35 counties in the eastern, southeastern and southern part of the state. The remaining counties are in Zone 2.

Last year there were 38 hunting casualties during the squirrel season. Six of these were fatal.

The daily bag limit on squirrel is four; possession limit after the first day is eight. Hours of shooting are daylight to dark in both zones, and the season ends in both zones Nov. 2.

Appointment of John R. Hyland of Columbus as chief of the division of Shore Erosion has been approved by the Natural Resources Commission. Hyland succeeds F. O. Kugel, recently named department chief engineer.

The Natural Resources Commission has turned down a request from a Pickaway County boatmen's group for permission to use boats with up to three horsepower on Hargus Creek Lake, which has 146 acres. The commission refused to reverse its policy of banning motorboats on state lakes of less than 500 acres.

Those who want to hunt pheasants on Kelleys Island in Lake Erie during the upland game season beginning Nov. 16 will be selected in a public drawing Nov. 4. Applications must be filed with the Ohio Division of Wildlife, giving complete name, address, telephone number and driver's license serial number.

Some notes: The Xenia headquarters of Wildlife District reports quail hunting should be good in the district this fall. . . The 100-acre Clark Lake, newest of Wildlife District 6 lakes, is yielding nice bluegills and largemouth bass to anglers with fishing know-how. . . Fishing regulations for 1960 will be considered by the Ohio Wildlife Council at Punderson Lake State Park in Geauga County next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. . . Sixty wood ducks have been live-trapped, banded and released at 75-acre Spring Valley Lake in Greene County, indicating a good natural reproduction.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—George Albert Rand, 34, of Columbus, pleaded innocent Tuesday to a first-degree murder charge in the shooting-burning death July 2 of Melvin E. Payne, 35, an investigator for the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation. Rand, nabbed in Cleveland last Wednesday by FBI agents, will get a preliminary hearing Sept. 17.

Gordon, Lane Pact Talk Due At Season End

CLEVELAND (AP) — The subject of whether Joe Gordon will be rehired to manage the Cleveland Indians won't be discussed officially until the season is over.

That's the word of General Manager Frank Lane, who said Tuesday in a luncheon talk that he prefers one-year contracts for managers.

"I have told Joe that we will sit down and evaluate things when the season is over and see how the situation shapes up for 1960," Lane said. "Any decision I make will be in what I believe is the best interest of the Indians."

There has been considerable speculation recently that Gordon —who will lead the Indians to no worse than a second place finish in his first season as manager— may be let out at the end of the year. Lane recently denied he was unhappy with Gordon and pointed out credit for the success of the Cleveland team must go in large part to the former second baseman.

One of Lane's observations about Gordon a week ago may leave a clue. He told an interviewer:

"If I had to go looking for a new manager I know it would be a lot easier to find a worse one than a better one."

Spahn Will Carry Braves' Hopes To Mound Tonight

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The old left-handed baseball doctor, Warren Spahn, will lug his satchel full of sliders, sinkers and curve balls to the mound tonight for the Milwaukee Braves.

It will be up to the 38-year-old veteran to keep alive Braves' hopes for a third straight National League pennant and to perform the operation that will secure triumph No. 4 in what the Milwaukee players hope will be a long victory string.

The Braves have insisted that a winning streak will carry them out of a second-place tie with the Los Angeles Dodgers and past the San Francisco Giants, first by three games. Any faltering in the last big home series will make next week's West Coast four just another road swing. The long streak had eluded the Braves all season. They've never been able to tie together more than six victories.

Spahn will face one of his favorite victims, the St. Louis Cardinals. He has a record of 54-31 against the Cards.

Equaling a record set last year, 159 two-year-old fillies have been kept eligible through a final fee for the 14th running of the Marguerite Stakes Nov. 21 at Pimlico.

Alex May Lose Money If He Flops In Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—If Alex Olmedo does not win the National Tennis championship, it could cost him a bundle of money.

How much? Only Jack Kramer knows that, and it won't come out until Alex is graduated from Southern California next January.

Alex meets young Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, today in a fourth-round match and the heat is on him. Still, outwardly he is as calm as though he were playing a week-end match in a local club.

"The pressure was rough in Davis Cup play," he admitted before taking on McKinley. "In the singles, you get a chance to build up your game with some easy early matches.

"That's what I needed. I think I have a pretty good chance."

Before the cup play, Olmedo was a prime prospect for Kramer's three-ring pro circus. But he lost a single match and dropped the doubles with Earl Buchholz and his stock took a nosedive.

The talk started at the $100,000 mark, but each time Alex gets beaten, it goes down. After the Nationals, there is no other tournament in which to salvage any prestige.

While Olmedo might have his troubles with McKinley, Neale Fraser, the Aussies' one - man gang, had a date with unheralded Rudy Hernando of Detroit. Fraser is seeded No. 2 behind Olmedo, who got his top ranking on the basis of his Australian and Wimbledon championships.

Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, No. 3, and Olmedo's cup teammate, plays Aussie second-liner Bob Mark, while veteran Vic Seixas is favored over National Clay Courts ruler Tut Bartzen of Dallas.

All Australians—Roy Emerson and Rod Laver — gained their quarterfinal brackets Tuesday. Emerson, seeded No. 8, eliminated Bill Bond, 17, of La Jolla, Calif., 6-2, 13-11, 6-2. Laver polished off NCAA champion Whitney Reed of San Jose State, 6-1, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. Laver is seeded No. 4.

In the women's division, Dorothy Head Knode of Panama upset eight-seeded Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., 6-2, 6-2 to advance to the quarter-finals.

Colts' Coach Will Test 2 More At Quarterback

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Consider the plight of Baltimore coach Weeb Ewbank if something should happen to sideline quarterback Johnny Unitas, the passing wizard who pitched the Colts to the National Football League championship last season.

With No. 2 signal-caller George Shaw peddled to the New York Giants, Ewbank has only defensive specialists Andy Nelson and Ray Brown as insurance against an injury to Unitas, who had to sit out a couple of key games during the 1958 campaign with fractured ribs.

Tuesday Ewbank took the initial steps to prepare for such an eventuality and rectify what could become of dangerous situation.

Step No. 1 is the assigning of Brown, who played offensively in college at Mississippi, to the starting quarterback role for Sunday's meeting with the Eagles at Philadelphia. Nelson will be given a thorough test for the remainder of the exhibition schedule.

Step No. 2 concerns shoring up the Colts pass protection. After reviewing films of Baltimore's last outing against Pittsburgh, Ewbank said the team's pass protection "wasn't good enough," and cautioned: "It had better improve."

In the Green Bay camp, new coach Vince Lombardi learned that former All-America end Ron Kramer is expected out of service shortly and will rejoin the Packers.

Lombardi also said Alex Hawkins, former South Carolina standout, likely will draw the starting halfback assignment for the Packers' nationally televised game with Washington at Winston-Salem, N. C., Saturday night.

The Redskins, meanwhile, bolstered their defensive backfield by buying halfback Bill Stits from San Francisco. The 'Skins gave up a draft choice to get the five-year veteran.

The Giants trimmed their roster to 44, dropping Soph halfback Don Maynard, used almost exclusively on running back punts last year; defensive half Sid Williams, and defensive end Jon Jelacic.

Ingemor Will Appear On Dinah Shore Show

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — World heavyweight boxing champion Ingemor Johansson is going to sing with Dinah Shore on her NBC-TV show Oct. 4.

"When I was in Sweden this summer, everyone told me how well Ingo could sing," Miss Shore said Tuesday. "So I brought some Swedish songs back with me and he'll sing both alone and with me."

Jockey Willie Shoemaker won three straight Washington Park Handicaps with Jet Action in 1955, Swaps in 1956 and Pucker Up in 1957.

Brown Lauds His Fullback

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Paul Brown, of the Cleveland Browns has watched many fine football players in 29 years of coaching, but he says fullback Jimmy Brown of Cleveland is "the greatest running back I've ever seen."

Although Coach Brown has been unstinting in his admiration of player Brown, it is rare for him to tab the blockbusting fullback as the greatest. He made the comment at a luncheon Tuesday.

Since Jimmy Brown joined Cleveland in 1957 he has been compared frequently with another of the Browns' great fullbacks, Marion Motley.

Until Jimmy Brown, Motley held most of Cleveland's ball carrying records.

In his rookie year, Brown toppled Motley's record for yards gained in a single game. Brown rolled up 237 yards against the Los Angeles Rams for a National League record. Motley's team mark was 188 yards, set in 1950.

Last year, Brown ground out 1,527 yards in 12 games. That broke the team record of 964 yards in 14 games set by Motley in 1948.

Brown, starting his third year in the professionals, is expected to rewrite many other team records set by Motley during his eight seasons with the Browns.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Many times I have heard fishermen say: "No use fishing at Lake Guilford, there are no fish in the lake worth a hang."

Don't tell that to Joseph Galechick of Salem. Joe doesn't know it, but he has set a new record of having caught the largest channel cat on record in our inland lakes, according to the Outdoor Writers of Ohio.

The fish measured 36 inches and weighed 32 pounds.

JOE REPORTS he has had either this fish or one just like it break his line on two different occasions. He fishes in the same spot in about 4 feet of water just off shore from what was once Votaw's Landing.

He says he has caught lots of bass in this spot and picked up two Sunday 13½ inches long.

Here's where the fishing skill comes in: Joe was fishing with a creek chub about 3 inches long, using a 4-ounce rod and a 6-pound leader when he got the big strike.

The cat took off for the middle of the lake and Joe said at one time he had about 100 yards of line out before the fish began to circle.

After about 40 minutes of give and take, he managed to get it in the dip net. Then the handle of the net broke in half. He grabbed the other half, laid his rod down in the boat and hung on while the fish moved the boat around in circles.

After it was brought to boat then came the measuring and weighing — in ceremony, with several witnesses to verify the fact.

I had a call from Hank Andrews, the sports editor of the Cleveland Press, and Hank verified the fact that this was the largest channel cat on record taken in our inland lakes.

JOE WILL receive a blank in the mail to be filled out and notarized and in return will receive a prize of some sort providing someone else doesn't catch a larger channel cat.

I don't think this will be done for a long time to come — if ever. Larger channels have been caught in the Ohio River and other rivers but not in the inland waters of Ohio.

Joe told me that anyone who says there are no fish in Lake Guilford will be wasting their time trying to make him buy that, since he has had good bass fishing there all this season and intends to build a cottage out there so he can fish any time he has to spare. Not only that but he has trout in his deep freeze and oher fish taken in various parts of the U. S.

Two Favored In Ivy Loop

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — For the third straight year the Ivy League title is supposed to stay on the line until the final day of the season. And for the third straight year Palmer Stadium in Princeton, N.J., is the best bet to be the title site.

Defending champion Dartmouth and 1958 runnerup Princeton are the choices in this year's Ivy race. But there aren't too many around the league who will be surprised if these two get smitten by usually slumbering Cornell, Penn or Harvard.

This trio gave the two contenders a scare last season until they killed off each other. Each has enough returning lettermen to maintain in 1958 momentum.

Of the three remaining members — Brown, Columbia and Yale — only Brown seems strong enough to challenge the contenders. The other two are at least a year away.

Dartmouth, which lost the Ivy title the last Saturday of the 1957 season then won it similarly last year, is pinning its hopes on quarterback Bill Grundy and half Jack Crouthamel.

Coach Bob Blackman's V-formation and variations give Crouthamel, who needs 52 yards to break the school's all time rushing mark, every offensive advantage. The Perkasie, Pa., senior gained 722 yards last year for a 5.9 average.

Grundy passed for 572 yards and six touchdowns in 1958.

Dan Sachs, the more-injured-than-not tailback of Coach Dick Colman's single - wing offense holds Princeton's hopes. Colman has halfback Jack Sullivan and Hugh Scott from last year's squad and Capt. Frank Svetecz at center to anchor his line. He has seven starters among 19 returning lettermen.

Cornell has five lettermen and five lettered reserves in its line. Penn has more returning lettermen than any other team.

Coach John Yovicsin has his 1958 starting backfield intact at Harvard but end Hank Keohane is the only returning first string lineman.

Fullback Paul Choquette and tackle Tom Burdrewicz head nine Brown lettermen.

Columbia will have to depend on untried sophs and halfback Harvey Brookins.

Jordon Olivar has an interior line but little else to go with a Yale.

Small Adjustment Corrects Time On City Hall's Clocks

A slight turn of a set screw in the master timing mechanism Tuesday straightened out the confusion that had kept all the clocks at City Hall running about an hour behind time since late last week.

City Electrician Fred Kane found the system had been thrown out of kilter because of need for minor adjustment in the big pendelum wall clock in the office of Mayor Fred P. Lawrence. It operates as the master, automatically making electrical corrections in the time in the clocks on all four floors of the municipal building.

When the flaw first developed, the clocks generally were running about an hour behind the correct time. Later, apparently as a result of unsuccessful attempts at repair, they were running as much as four hours ahead or behind the true time.

Baffled by the confusion, some workers in City Hall offices took clocks from their homes to help them keep track of the time.

Strike Continues But Court Orders Halt To Picketing

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The 3,500 production workers at Chrysler Corp.'s Twinsburg Stamping Plant continued their wildcat walkout today, but were under court injunction to halt picketing around the plant.

The temporary restraining order was granted the company Tuesday by Common Pleas Judge Frank H. Harvey in Akron.

The strikers, members of United Auto Workers Local 122, defied their union leaders who called the walkout—which started last Friday—illegal.

Friday's walkout, the second within a week, came after the local president and vice president, plus five union stewards were were fired by Chrysler.

Union members said Tuesday they will not return to work until alleged safety hazards are eliminated and the company reinstates those fired.

Local union leaders have asked the UAW international executive board for an authorized strike over a list of grievances.

Charged With Murder

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Police filed a charge of first - degree murder Tuesday night against Leonard Judd, 59, in the shooting death of his estranged wife, Rose, 41. Investigators said Judd approached his wife at Whirlpool Corp. where both worked and after a remark to her, shot her twice. Then he shot himself three times in the chest, suffering critical injuries.

Rotary Hears City Group

Tax Boost Linked To Parking Jam

Lack of adequate parking space in downtown East Liverpool could possibly lead to payment of higher taxes by city residents if the situation is not alleviated soon, the Rotary Club was told at its meeting Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, speaking with a three-member program committee headed by William Cooper, pointed out that the "strangling" of traffic in the city caused by a severe lack of parking space may "invite development of outside shopping centers in less-crowded areas."

"IF THIS happens," the mayor warned," the tax valuation of the city falls, the income to operate the city is reduced and higher tax rates must be collected to make up for the deficit."

City Solicitor Joseph Cooper also joined in the discussion. William Cooper is chairman of the city's Traffic Planning Commission which was recently re-activated to study and recommend courses of action for improved parking and traffic control in East Liverpool.

"The commission is hard at work studying traffic control problems in the city and is making progress, the mayor said. "But it needs the support and encouragement of everyone to get results," he added.

Mayor Lawrence further warned that if shopping centers should spring up and lure away some of the 80,000 drawing population of the city's businesses, East Liverpool would thus become less attractive to outsiders and chances of obtaining new industries would decline.

THE OBVIOUS answer to the critical shortage of parking space in the downtown area is to construct new lots close to stores, the three said.

However, problems involved include financing of the purchase of strategic lots downtown to create parking space for the daily influx of autos from surrounding communities. The financial problem is of principal importance, the committee said.

The solicitor discussed five possible methods of financing blacktopped lots including "cash payment", which he said is "most unlikely."

The others include issuance of either general obligation bonds, mortage revenue bonds or special assessment bonds or a combination of general obligation and special assessment bonds.

—:—

COOPER POINTED out that the combination arrangement, whereby both merchants and parkers share the total cost of purchase and construction, is "probably the fairest way."

The two sources of income would result in faster retirement of bonds and the interest rate would be less than the other methods, he said.

William Cooper, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, asked for understanding and co-operation by city residents in helping to provide answers to traffic problems.

He pointed out that East Liverpool, with a population of 25,000 and a drawing population of 80,000, "can keep its place among leading cities in the upper Ohio Valley if we meet our problems with aggressiveness and intelligence."

—:—

COOPER COMPARED parking facilities in the city with another of its size, Sharon, where more than $620,000 has been spent in constructing new off - street parking lots.

"Steubenville, too, has recognized the traffic problem, and has spent $550,000 for construction of only two parking lots in the downtown area," Cooper added.

"Every other city in Ohio is doing it, and the plan is not unique," Cooper said in referring to plans now under way for building a new parking lot on W. 6th St., across from City Hall.

City Council purchased the W. 6th St., lot for $17,000.

HE ALSO commented that the city someday have three-lane traffic with parking allowed only on one side of a street. "Then, more off-street parking must be provided," he said.

"East Liverpool can be the best city in the U. S. if the traffic control problems are answered intelligently," the chairman commented.

Guests included Don Ogilvie, a member of the Traffice Planning Commission, George Mitchell of Coral Gables, Fla., A. T. Knabb of Weirton, Hancock County sanitarian, and another from Youngstown. Charles Taylor, president, presided.

West Point Firemen Agree To Serve Elkton, Township

The West Point fire department will answer Elkton and Elkrun Township calls pending a study on possible repairs to the fire truck shared by the Center and Elkrun Townships.

At a meeting of the Elkrun trustees Saturday night, Fire Chief Thirl Flugan reported the truck—owned jointly by the townships and housed at Lisbon—is disabled and unfit for use. He said it has not been determined if satisfactory repairs can be made.

Elkrun Township has a fire contract with West Point, and in case of emergency, that unit should be called.

The trustees recently purchased an attachment for use in salting and ashing roads in the winter. The equipment, obtained from the Howard Adams Construction & Machinery Co. of Salineville, is operated by the driver, eliminating the need for a helper.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams and daughters of Cave Creek, Ariz., have returned home after spending a vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Glenn.

Mrs. Olin Evans attended a wedding and reception of Miss Lucy Ellen Evans and David Jamison, both of Lisbon, Saturday at Lisbon.

Women of the Methodist Church served a meal for the Country Club Saturday at the Parish Hall.

Earl Smith of the West Point Rd. is a patient at Salem City Hospital.

Mrs. Elwood Barber is a patient at Salem City Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Harrold and family spent Sunday at McConnell's Mill near Ellwood City.

Mrs. N. J. D. Smith of Pine Hollow Rd. is convalescing at City Hospital.

A Midland delegation will meet with Park Martin, secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, Thursday at 3 p. m. in Harrisburg to discuss improvements for Route 68 west of Midland and to Midland Ave., the office of United Steelworkers Union Local 1212 reported.

Joseph D'Alesio, president of Local 1212, and a member of the Executive Board of the union's District 20 legislative committee, will attend, along with Burgess Eli Corak, who will be representing 1212, and Charles Ford, director of the legislative committee for Pennsylvania.

Beaver's 1st Graders To Get Physical Exams

LISBON — Physical examinations for all first graders have been scheduled next week at all Beaver Local schools, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

The schedule calls for exams at Elkton Monday, Rogers and West Point, Tuesday and Calcutta, Wednesday through Friday.

First grade physicals were given 38 at Salineville and 13 at Summitville Tuesday. The health staff gave 18 immunizations and 11 vaccinations, Dr. Palmer said.

The Korean War armistice was signed July 7, 1953.

Hearing Rescheduled For 2 In Disturbance

A hearing scheduled this morning before Mayor William J. Shoub for two men involved in a fight Monday night at Ann's New House, 1317 Main St., Wellsville, has been postponed until tonight.

Arrested during the fracas were Floyd Stewart of Hammondsville and William Fultz of the Campground Rd. Both are charged with disorderly conduct by fighting.

They were not involved in a fight at the Star-Lite Cafe, as reported Tuesday. Police said both men had to be treated at City Hospital for cuts when they fell into a jukebox at the tavern.

Answers 'Truth Squad'

State's Financial Books Open, Gov. DiSalle Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state's financial books are open to any qualified accountant disputing the governor's description of Ohio's financial picture, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said Tuesday.

DiSalle was answering several Republican legislators from Hamilton County who call themselves the "truth squad."

The governor took issue with one of the group's statements. They had said 90 per cent of the Republican legislators opposed higher appropriations in the legislative session just ended. DiSalle cited about 88 million dollars which Republicans approved overwhelmingly.

Included were the hiked school subsidy, state employes' salary adjustment and the lifting of the $65-a-month ceiling on aid for the aged and the blind.

DiSalle also cited figures showing an increase in the number of patients in Ohio's mental institutions. He was answering Rep. Robert F. Reckman (R-Hamilton). DiSalle quoted Reckman as saying that the number of patients has declined 10 per cent but costs are rising.

DiSalle said the hospital population is 2,000 higher than in 1956 and about 1,000 more than in 1955.

In another remark at his news conference, the governor said he is beginning to wonder about the value of the Ohio State Fair.

Newsmen had queried the governor about his failure to appear at the fair on governor's Day last Thursday.

"Maybe it (the Fair) ought to have some statewide interest," DiSalle thought out loud.

Asked if the century-old State Fair might now be an anachronism (a thing out of place in its time), DiSalle replied "perhaps . . . maybe, if it operated like county fairs run by non-political groups. . ."

He didn't finish the sentence.

DiSalle declared war Tuesday—on traffic accidents.

Alarmed by the 30 highway fatalities on Ohio's highways over the Labor Day weekend, the governor said he would have Ohio's worst curves and intersections labeled as "public enemies."

He said he will ask Highway Safety Director J. Grant Keys to add 68 more Highway Patrolmen to the force to bring the group to its authorized strength of 700 as quickly as possible.

DiSalle said he will ask Highway Director Everett S. Preston to fix priorities on the dangerous parts of the highways. He added it would not take long to establish the priorities and determine at least temporary measures to reduce the accidental death toll.

The governor said the elimination of the hazards must come within the scope of present highway appropriations.

Most of the large cities of the world are located not more than 600 feet above sea level.

TALENT WINNER Donald Stoddard, 8-year-old North Side youngster, holds a trophy he won at the Canfield Fair last week with an acro-tap dance routine which earned him first place in the Junior Division. A third grade student at Lincoln School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stoddard, 1311 Smithfield St. Several hundred took part in the overall competition sponsored by the National Open Twirling and Talent Contest. Donald is a student at the Bill Cassidy Studios and studied at New York this summer with the June Taylor Studio, earning a certificate.

Traffic Solicitation Planned At Chester To Aid Polio Fund

A traffic solicitation for the Hancock County polio fund will be held in Chester Saturday, it was announced at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall.

Dean Bryan, chairman of the Chester March of Dimes program, said the traffic solicitation will be held from 1 to 5 p. m. at Carolina Ave. and 6th St.

Bryan said each contributor will be given a trash bag for his auto and information on the West Virginia law on littering highways. He said the special drive is being held to supplement the county fund which is depleted.

Several club members volunteered to assist.

Several members also offered assistance in policing and serving in other duties at high school home football games at the request of R. M. McFarland, president.

McFarland announced the district convention will be held Sept. 27-29 at Clarksburg.

A tape recording of highlights of the International convention at Dallas, Tex., in June was played. About 21 attended the meeting.

Garfield PTA Prepares For Association Rally

Plans for a joint Parent-Teacher Association meeting Oct. 7 were discussed by officers of the Garfield PTA Tuesday afternoon at the school.

The joint meeting will be held for city PTA groups at the Westgate School under auspices of the City Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Homeroom mothers of the Garfield School are to meet Sept. 30 at the school library. Charles Heasley, president, was in charge.

Enlisted men in the Continental Marines of 1775 to 1783 wore green coats, green shirts and breeches of light colored cloth.

Caution Pays Off For Khrushchev

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

"If you live among dogs," says Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev, who is fond of proverbs, "Keep a stick with you."

For him, the cautious philosophy paid off. The 220-pound bundle of energy who heads for the United States next week for the announced purpose of making friends never has had many of them at home. A Communist politician on the way up couldn't afford friends.

It was a close call for Khrushchev and other members of Stalin's inner circle early in 1953. In the words of an American diplomat, old Stalin had "reached for the bottle again." A new blood purge seemed inevitable. Nobody was safe.

Stalin, suspecting somebody planned to rub him out in his declining years, cooked up a fantastic tale of a plot by doctors, most of them Jewish, to poison leading Soviet figures, including himself. Moscow had an ugly sense of foreboding.

Luckily for most concerned — possibly it was more than coincidence—Stalin died in March. George M. Malenkov became premier and party leader, the new boss. But he was not strong enough to rule. Within a few weeks the irrepressible Khrushchev nudged Malenkov out of the party leadership. The doctor's plot was denounced as a grim hoax.

Nikita Khrushchev at last was on his way to the top.

Once secret police chief Lavrenty Beria was safely lodged in a safe place.

Lubyanka prison cellar, awaiting the final bullet, and the police organization was purged of tens of thousands of its more dangerous members, Khrushchev was free to throw his considerable weight around. He did.

With his new post as first party secretary formally approved, Khrushchev promptly denounced the directors of Soviet agriculture for the sorry mess presented by that phase of the economy.

Beria was shot and then given a trial as an American spy. The Russian in the street grinned broadly. Things would be better. And Khrushchev climbed higher. By 1955 he was able to blame Malenkov for Soviet farming woes and forced him to quit as premier with an abject confession of failure. Nikolai Bulganin, goateed and courtly political-military figure, became premier.

When Stalin's body had been safely encased in a gaudy Red Square tomb for three years, Khrushchev finally was strong enough to denounce him to other Communists as a barbarian torturer and murderer, a military imbecile who nearly brought the nation to disaster.

Khrushchev and the other top leaders may have owed their lives to an alliance with the military and the war hero, Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov. In 1956 Khrushchev hailed Zhukov as a superb general who had been maligned and exiled by Stalin.

In 1957, the marshal was exiled by Khrushchev, who said he had "violated Leninist principles."

Then the time finally came when Bulganin was to be disgraced. He was forced to confess he had engaged in criminal activity with the antiparty group of Malenkov, Lazar Kaganovich and V.M. Molotov, Stalin's right hand in foreign affairs. Bulganin felt obliged to characterize Malenkov as a plotter, Molotov as an ignoramus and Kaganovich as an old windbag.

But Stalin himself was not entirely dead. Some aspects of Stalinism still were necessary, particularly in the world movement. When it came to questions of what is called the inevitable victory of world communism, announced Khrushchev, he and all Communists were still "good Stalinists."

But he still ruled cautiously. He still had enemies. And, at the lonely pinnacle, he probably could rely on nobody as a real friend.

Investigation Called Fraud

GOP On Rackets Group Renews Probe Into UAW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans on the Senate Rackets Committee renew today their inquiry into the United Auto Workers — an investigation called a fraud by Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy, a Democrat.

For the most part, Kennedy has sat in silence while Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) has interrogated witnesses testifying against UAW vice president Richard T. Gosser of Toledo.

The committee is hearing testimony developed by its Republican members independently of official committee investigators. The hearings, which started behind closed doors, were called to determine whether a full probe was justified.

Just as the session was about to break up Tuesday, Kennedy said that his own staff had looked into some of the charges against Gosser and found them fraudulent.

Curtis heatedly shot back at him:

"Your line is (UAW president) Walter Reuther's line and (UAW general counsel) Joe Rauh's line . . . If you want to testify you be sworn."

Undeterred, Kennedy went right on saying that Toledo lawyers had conceded that the charges they helped to press in a lawsuit against Gosser "were all fraudulent."

The dispute developed after John A. Bolman, a former-Toledo union official, testified he was expelled from the union for 99 years after a law suit which involved misconduct charges against Gosser. Bolman said the suit was settled out of court.

Bolman said he earlier had suffered a brutal beating at a union meeting when he demanded an accounting from Gosser of union funds.

Kennedy said the charges—all dating back to an intra-union fight 10 years ago and relating to Gosser's handling of UAW Local 12's finances—were used to help employers fight a UAW pension plan.

"That's why this whole hearing is such a fraud," Kennedy said.

He named H. P. Ells as the principal lawyer handling litigation for dissidents against Gosser. He said publisher Paul Block of the Toledo Blade was paying Ells' fees.

Regardless of other matters, Curtis contended, "the fact remains that a rank and file member (Bolman) went to the union for action, and had his jaw broken and was knocked down."

Fire School To Begin Sunday At Yorkville

STEUBENVILLE — The Tri-County Firemen's Association will sponsor its seventh annual fire school Sunday with over 50 departments in Ohio and West Virginia expected to be represented.

Registration will be held in the Yorkville fire station from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m. and classes will begin at 9:20 a. m.

Charles Getz, co-ordinator of the State Education Bureau, will assist the committee and instructors in teaching classes on fire fighting tactics and emergency and fire equipment.

Lunch will be served by the auxiliaries of Yorkville and Tiltonsville volunteer fire departments. Robert Love is president of the association.

Way Woman Received Gash In Thigh Sought

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The death of a Dayton woman has left police searching for the manner in which she received a gash in her left thigh that apparently led to her death.

Mrs. Gertrude Thomas, 24, died Tuesday after being brought to St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday night. Hospital attendants said she apparently died of shock from the injury. They said she was in surgery five hours.

Detective Sgt. Lucius Gleaton said the woman never regained full consciousness but that she had mumbled that she was "just playing around with someone," apparently referring to the incident. The wound apparently was inflicted with scissors, police said.

3 Wellsville District Dog Owners Are Fined

Three Wellsville district residents were fined a total of $45 and costs Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon for failing to purchase dog licenses and allowing their pets to run at large.

Mrs. Martha Grafton, 1260 Parshall St., was fined $25 and costs, and Frank E. DeSenze, 1225 Parshall St., and Harry E. Merriman, 1318 Hillcrest Rd., $10 each. They were cited by R. J. Reichenbach, county dog warden.

Report Reflects County's Jump In Dead And Injured

Columbiana County's dead and injured on highways in the first six months of this year showed a continuing increase over 1958 according to a report from the Ohio Department of Highway Safety.

In the first half of this year, 13 were killed and 347 injured on streets and roads, compared with 11 killed and 345 hurt.

Only the number of accidents (800 from 812) and amount of property damage accidents (580 to 559) showed any decrease from the similar period of 1958.

Injury accidents were up 223 to 230 as were pedestrian accidents 23 to 24 and the total property damage — $388,130 to $445,580 according to the report.

At present, the number of county fatalities stands at 24, compared with 13 at this time in 1958.

House Votes 245-5 To Seat Rep. Alford

WASHINGTON (AP)—By a vote of 245-5, the House has declared that Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark) is entitled to his seat in Congress.

Alford, a strong segregationist, won a surprise write-in victory in Little Rock last November over Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark). Hays was considered a moderate on the question of school integration.

Alford's campaign featured the use of printed stickers bearing his name which were pasted onto ballots by write-in voters. There was some question of the legality of this.

2 Men Given 30-Day County Jail Terms

LISBON — Leslie Palmer, 36, of Hammondsville and Daniel E. Brown, 21, of Salineville were each given 30 days in the County Jail after they pleaded guilty to petty larceny Tuesday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court. They stole a battery from the Robert Beverly sawmill valued at $30.

They were arrested Saturday afternoon by Chief Deputy James Miller of Salineville. James O. Kistler, 29, of Salineville was released when it was found he was not implicated in the theft.

Next Time He Visits Cuba He'll Go Hungry

HAVANA (AP) — Next time Jules Dubois visits Cuba he will go hungry—and thirsty—if the waiters union has anything to say about it.

The Cuban Federation of Gastronomical Workers voted not to serve the Chicago Tribune correspondent, effective today. The federation includes employes of bars, restaurants and hotels. It termed Dubois' articles offensive to the revolution.

At his home at Coral Gables, Fla., Dubois said he always has written the truth about Cuba and will continue to do so.

Breaks Up Angry Mob

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Police broke up a milling, angry mob of Negroes Tuesday night by firing a shot into the air shortly after six young white persons were arrested for assaulting Negroes.

Facts Seen Conclusive Reds In On Laos Strife

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is almost conclusive evidence the attacks in Laos are getting support from Communist North Viet Nam, Sen. J.W. Fulbright (D-Ark) says.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke Tuesday after the committee got a 90-minute briefing from J. Graham Parsons, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

Congress Is In A Hurry

Civil Rights Action Unlikely Now

WASHINGTON

Major civil rights legislation this year is as unlikely as the idea that Soviet Premier Nikita Kruschev will ask for political asylum when he lands here next week.

Congress, rushing to get away before Khrushchev arrives, may renew the life of the President's six-man Civil Rights Commission which otherwise dies Nov. 9. That's the most in view.

Civil rights advocates might like to think that if not this year then next year Congress will ram through a strong civil rights bill. Don't bet on it, even though 1960 could be noisy.

Next year is the big election year—for the presidency and Congress—and Southern Democrats, no matter what the year, can be relied on to fight any civil rights bill with real teeth in it.

Such a fight, if it got nasty enough, could split the Democratic party wide open at a time when it wanted unity at the polls.

The Democratic leaders in Congress—Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn, both of Texas—are compromisers who don't like splits. Johnson himself is a possible candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Tuesday the Civil Rights Commission, although without much real power of its own, threw another log on the fire with a report making some proposals in the civil rights field.

Southern Democrats hopped on them angrily and at once, even though they are still only in the talking stage. Nevertheless, the commission's suggestions are bound to be one more point of argument next year.

But judging from past performance—the maneuvering and compromising in Congress—plus the fact that 1960 is election time. it seems safe to say any civil rights legislation passed next year will be fairly mild.

This seemed the year for any effort at a strong civil rights bill—since Southerners would have had another year to cool off—but neither Johnson nor Rayburn sought to make civil rights a major issue this year.

Varying civil rights proposals were put forth by Johnson, by President Eisenhower, and by Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill), who was joined by 14 other Democratic and Republican senators.

All of the proposals landed in an icebox because of Southern Democrats' tactics in locking them up in committee and thus keeping them from getting out on the floor of the House or Senate for a vote.

The committees which did the locking up are headed by Southerners.

Earlier this year the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights—made up of 53 organizations—threw its weight behind the bill sponsored by Douglas and the other 14 senators. A companion bill was offered in the House by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and chairman of the conference, called the Douglas measure "certainly the No. 1 civil rights bill." From the start, this looked like the one with the least chance.

A statement by the conference's executive committee found some good in Eisenhower's proposals but said the Johnson bill might result in "civil rights being bargained away rather than enforced."

If any measure gets through next year, it isn't likely to be the Douglas bill but more probably some middle - road legislation which the Southerners won't find too unpalatable.

Board Studies Colleges Pleas For More Money In 1960-1961

CHARLESTON (AP) — The State Board of Education mulled over today pleas of presidents of nine state colleges for more money with which to operate their institutions in the 1960-61 fiscal year.

The presidents want minimum salary increases of 20 per cent for administrative workers, 10 per cent for maintenance and clerical personnel and more faculty pay for summer sessions.

The requests for more financial support were presented yesterday at the opening of a two-day board meeting. Today's session was taken up with largely routine matters.

Spokesman for the Council of State College Presidents was W. J. L. Wallace of West Virginia State.

Other college presidents stressing the need for more financial support included Harry B. Heflin of Glenville State, Paul N. Elbin of West Liberty and Stewart Smith of Marshall College.

"We're not gaining ground," Heflin said "We are catching up, we're not keeping up."

Smith foresaw a serious need for financial support all the way down the line. He said he did not favor the present system of attempting to solve problems on a priority basis from year to year.

Last year, for example, he said, the presidents favored the addition of faculty personnel to solve the most pressing problem.

As for increased faculty pay for summer sessions, Elbin said he favored boosting salaries for the regular academic term if there had to be a choice between it and the summer school classes.

The presidents asked for more money in connection with the proposed budget for the 1960-61 fiscal year. This budget now is under study by the board.

Coast Guard Finds Liner At Fault In Crash

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard has found the liner Constitution at fault in a collision with the tanker Jalanta March 1 just outside New York Harbor.

The Coast Guard found that the primary cause of the collision was "the failure of the U.S. Constitution to go at a moderate speed in a fog and failure to stop her engines and navigate with caution upon hearing forward of her beam the fog signal of a vessel, the position of which was not ascertained."

Wise Dieter Uses High Satiety Foods

If the world diet gives you a bleak outlook on life, skip it. You can control your weight beautifully without resorting to diet. The secret is to plan meals that are high in satiety but not high in calories. It's a wise dieter who knows the satiety value of foods. Here are some fascinating facts.

Ida Jean Kain

Certain foods appease hunger more effectively than other foods do — completely apart from the calorie story. The satiety value of food is a measure of the extent to which a food gives a sense of well-being and satisfaction. This can be measured in two ways: the length of time the food remains in the stomach and the amount of gastric juice stimulated by the food.

—:—

MEAT HAS THE highest satiety value of all foods and therefore "sticks to the ribs" longest. Clear soups and broths, because of the meat extractives contained in them, stimulate the gastric juices, and also provide that important feeling of satisfaction.

It's well to be in - the - know about bread and potatoes. While the satiety value of these two foods is relatively low, a potato or a slice of bread when eaten with meat significantly boosts the satiety value of the meal. But no "seconds" on starch.

Studies reveal that when the amount of bread or potato is increased, the satiety value does not rise proportionately. Be alert to the fact that a second helping of potato or bread adds far more in calories than in true satisfaction.

In contrast, the satiety value of meat increases directly in proportion with the amount of meat eaten.

Fish, being comparatively low in calories, is an excellent food for the reducer. However, fish is of much lower satiety value than meat or eggs. Therefore, at a fish meal, it is a good plan to garnish the salad with hard cooked egg slices. Hard cooked eggs have a higher satiety value than raw or soft cooked eggs do.

Green vegetables are relatively low in satiety, but they enhance the feeling of well-being because of the quality of bulk they provide. Total bulk content of a meal is an important factor in "fullness" satisfaction.

Fat boost the satiety value of the meal but they also boost calories. Fat should be trimmed from meat.

USE FAT WHERE it is most appreciated — for butter on bread where it can be seen, instead of smothered in vegetables. A half pat of butter on a baked potato is most satisfying.

It's common knowledge that a sweet puts a finishing touch to a meal. A simple dessert, such as fruit, gelatine or custard made with skim milk, added to a low calorie meal helps you to feel satisifed while reducing.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Curb Loitering Of School Children

If your child walks home from school, or part-way home, he may be tempted to loiter on the way. He may pause to watch some construction activity, or to join a group of children on a vacant lot, or stop at a schoolmate's home. If he has just begun school, or is attending school in a new neighborhood, there may be special temptation for him to loiter. Anyway, during the first week of school, your child may develop a pattern of returning home from there. So your early vigilance is desirable. Just to advise your child on this matter may not be enough. You may also need to drive or walk toward the school following its hour of closing, especially if your child's arrival home is noticeably late.

By Garry Meyers

In order to cultivate good habits in your elementary school child of coming home promptly, especially during the early weeks of school, you will need to be home or have a competent substitute there and make his homecoming as welcome as you can.

—:—

EAGERLY LISTEN to his account of the day's experience. So far as you can, set the stage so he will enjoy some play with other children of the home neighborhood.

If your young child wanted to stop at a schoolmate's home not far away, it would be better for him to come home first and go there later. You need to know where he is.

Even the child as old as 10 or 14 should arrive home around a definite hour. If he knows in the morning he will not be able to leave school promptly, or has good reason to make a stop on the way, he should so inform you then. Otherwise he should telephone you from school.

It's a good rule for all members of the family to observe and thus avoid undue worry and anxiety by any of them.

An attractive loitering place for school children is where a building is under construction. They might wish to watch the activity of the workmen or, if the workmen have quit work, to ramble about the building under construction or to play games of hide-and-seek there.

ANOTHER ALLUREMENT to the child on his way home from school is a store, especially the "dime store," where he can view many things he would like to have. Handling things there, he may be tempted to begin shoplifting.

Knowing of one or more such stores on your child's way from school, you might be wise to drop into such places occasionally after school-closing time. Should you find your child loitering there, make clear to him in the presence of a store clerk that he's never to go there again except with a responsible person.

My bulletin "Educating Your Child in Responsibility" may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

It Was 'Blue Monday' For Springfield Painter

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—It was "Blue Monday" on Tuesday for Donald W. Vannoy, 38, a Springfield house painter, although the occasion was a day late—probably because of Labor Day.

Traffic officers reported a car driven by Vannoy had a splattering collision with another vehicle.

Vannoy was hauling 20 gallons of blue paint in his car and it poured over the street in a bright blue pool. The paint also splashed Vannoy from head to foot.

To top it all, officers said, when Vannoy pulled out his billfold to show his license, all his papers fell into the blue mess. The final blue note came when the officers charged Vannoy with reckless operation.

By JOHN CROSBY

Day In Court With Edgar Jones

Back when I was a sprout, the ambition of any fledgling Blackstone was to grow up to be Clarence Darrow and defend criminals, preferably rich ones. But that's anachronistic, like aspiring to a Stutz Bearcat. Today, young lawyers, while grubbing away at routine tasks, dream secretly of having their own television show. There's nothing like habeas corpus on a national network with a sponsor and all that jazz.

John Crosby

Such a one, forsooth, is Edgar Allan Jones Jr., who deals in televised torts as the judge on "Day in Court," three afternoons and one evening a week on ABC-TV, and the rest of the time is a practicing professor of law at UCLA.

-:-

A DECEPTIVELY youngish-looking fellow, Jones sturdily defends his split personality—one foot in show business, the other in jurisprudence—by explaining that he has seven children with an eighth expected and any device for earning money is forgivable with that many mouths to feed.

How did it affect his relations with his students at UCLA?

"Students always will look on a professor as an oddball," sighed Mr. Jones. "This just adds another dimension."

On "Day in Court," the cases are taken from actual legal cases with real attorneys who appear anonymously. The plaintiffs and defendants are actors who stick to their lines. The lawyers stick fairly close to theirs except when Jones throws them.

-:-

JONES APPEARS cold without even having read the script or the case and picks his way through it, as a real judge might.

"This gives ulcers to the actors and directors and producers," he said. "They've been trying to get me to read the cases, but I simply haven't time. Besides, I think it gives the show a little excitement when no one knows the outcome."

Theoretically, the trials are supposed to have been going on all day and the outcome is concentrated in the half hour on the air.

"We do maintain a remarkable degree of authenticity," said Mr. Jones. "To research the cases, I use the top students of the law school. Five students split up the work and also divide up $250 a week.

"This is a lot of money to a law student and we actually get much better work than if we gave the $250 to a full-time lawyer."

THE AMERICAN Bar Assn. thinks highly enough of the show to give it its Gavel Award for "outstanding public service by increasing public understanding of the administration of justice through the television series."

Jones, too, feels that that is the show's chief value—teaching people a little of how the law works and what their rights are. Since each of these cases is the kernel of a real case, there was a real decision at one time.

"My decisions are completely ad lib, based on just what I hear on the show," Jones points out. "Two-thirds of the time I reach the same decision as that of the original court. One - third of the time I don't. We have some interesting cases of law.

"We just had one on the right of privacy. An ex-con brought damages against a movie producer who did a movie on this man's life.

"In 1939 he had been put in prison for second-degree murder and that put the story in the public domain. After he was released he went straight, got married and became an insurance agent.

"The movie upset his life terribly and consequently I found for him. So did the California court which originally tried the case."

-:-

EVERY FRIDAY "Day in Court" features arraignments, usually five of them.

If you watch a week from this Friday, for example, you'll see Jones preside over the arraignments of a man accused of turning his pets into alcoholics, a shoeshine boy accused of assault, and a father endangering the health of his child.

"The viewers like the arraignments best," he said. "That way they get a capsule crime in four minutes—criminals come to the bench and plead guilty or not guilty.

"I stick to the facts of the case. I'm not going to jeopardize my law career to make it a good show. In fact if the show ever gets in the way of my real career, which is the law, I'll quit."

Boys Get Hearing After Scampering Over School Roof

Two young boys, who frightened nearby residents Tuesday night by scampering over the roof of Central School, were due to appear before Chris Pusey, juvenile officer, at noon today at City Hall.

The boys, both about 8 years old, were taken into custody by police last night after their escapade and then released in custody of their parents pending the hearing today.

Firemen got a call at 7:45 p. m. from a resident reporting the pair on the roof and expressing the fear they might fall.

Asst. Chief Alfred Van Dyne sent the aerial ladder truck to the school and police also were notified.

Apparently deciding they had caused enough trouble, the boys jumped from the roof onto a fire escape and fled down the stairway and into the home of a woman, firemen said.

But the brother of one spotted them entering the home and turned them over to Van Dyne.

Because one has been a previous offender, Lt. Clyde W. Boso had the boys taken to City Hall before they were turned over to their parents.

Follansbee Council Drops Annexation Bid

FOLLANSBEE, W. Va. (AP) — City Council last night gave up its attempt to annex land that includes a Wheeling Steel coke plant.

The corporation went to the courts in its resistance. The argument made by it was that the city simply was trying to get more money by taxing its property.

Brooke County Circuit Court yesterday, acting on the petition of Wheeling Steel, ordered the city to appear next Monday to explain its intentions.

At the council meeting that night, the annexation election scheduled for Sept. 22 was canceled by a 3-1 vote.

Callas Breaks Off Her Marriage To Italian Tycoon

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Fiery soprano Maria Callas has called quits to her 10-year marriage to the elderly Italian industrialist who guided her rise to the top in opera.

But the 35-year-old soprano said Aristotle Onassis had nothing to do with the bustup though the Greek shipping tycoon has been her recent date.

Onassis said the same thing, but added he would be "flattered if a woman with the class of Maria Callas fell in love with someone like me."

"Now I am my own manager," Miss Callas told newsmen in announcing the breakup of her marriage to 62-year-old Giovan Battista Meneghini. "It has been coming for a long time."

Attorneys for Miss Callas and Meneghini are working out details of their marital split.

Onassis flew in his private plane Tuesday to Venice where his wife was waiting for him aboard their yacht. He said reports of a romance between him and the temperamental soprano were "fairy tales—silly inventions."

Break Theft Ring

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies report they have broken up a teen-age theft ring, operating in Lake County for two weeks, with the arrest of five Mentor Twp. youths. Deputies said Tuesday night the youths implicated one another in burglaries and thefts at eight trailer parks and four business establishments in which money and goods were taken.

'Crime Coordinator' Proposed For Cities To Nip Crime Wave

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A new city office and a new state agency might nip Ohio's growing crime rate at its grass roots, says M. C. Koblentz, chief of the Division of Correction.

It's Koblentz' suggestion that Ohio cities hire a "crime coordinator" who would work directly under the mayor or city manager. The coordinator would have authority to merge the efforts of the community's official and non-official law-enforcement and crime-prevention agencies for a concentrated campaign against crime, especially among juveniles.

At the state level, the corrections chief recommends a crime prevention unit with three functions: (1) Collect data to determine where the crime problem lies so it can be pinpointed for action, (2) provide a clearing hosse for exchange of ideas between communities, and (3) advise and assist local officials when they request it.

In explaining his ideas Tuesday, Koblentz said the cost of the city post—which might be $10,000 to $12,000—would be made up by reduction of damage and loss when crime is prevented.

And if men could be kept out of Ohio's prisons — where it costs about $1,200 a year on the average to maintain them—Koblentz said the cost of the state crime prevention unit would also be made up.

"This certainly isn't criticism of any community's program," Koblentz said. "I believe every Ohio community has an intense interest in the crime situation. But unfortunately, each agency is handling the problem singularly."

Lausche, Young Voted For Appropriations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both of Ohio's Democratic senators voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate passed a new $1,185,093,000 public works appropriations bill, 73-15.

But they split in the vote to approve an amendment to limit the raised interest rates to 4¼ per cent in the savings bond bill. Sen. Stephen M. Young favored the amendment, which passed 45-41. Sen. Frank J. Lausche opposed it.

Doesn't Have Money To Burn—But He Did It

PARIS, Ky. (AP)—Grocer Raymond Yazell doesn't have money to burn, but he did it.

He opened his store and went about his usual morning chore of burning the trash. Then his wife returned from a Labor Day trip and said she had hidden $400 in cash and $100 in checks before she left.

The hiding place? The trash basket.

How To Select A Nursery School, And Decide If Johnny Should Go

By DR. BENJAMIN FINE AND LILLIAN FINE

Should you send your child to nursery school? Or would it be wiser to save the money to pay college expenses later on?

You may get some help by asking yourself the following questions:

1.—Is my son or daughter strong and healthy enough to start school now?

2.—Does he have enough play space and the equipment he needs to develop muscles and co-ordination?

3.—Does he need more companions of his own age?

4.—Does he need more opportunities and experience than I can give him at home?

5.—Do I need some help from a trained, objective person in understanding my child?

6.—Does he show signs of being too dependent and babyish?

—:—

IF YOU answer "yes" to most of these questions, your child probably needs the experience of attending a good nursery school.

How do you find the right one? First of all, find out from your doctor, neighbors, clergyman, or community officials what schools are available within a reasonable distance.

The best school in the world is hardly worth transporting young children long distances.

Investigate thoroughly. This means staying through at least one session and observing carefully the physical conditions, the teachers' attitude, the behavior of the children, and the general "atmosphere" of the school.

Find out how much training and experience the teachers have and what they try to accomplish with the children.

Is the school overcrowded or understaffed? Is there plenty of space indoors and out for vigorous noisy play? Is the play space protected from traffic and intruders?

Is there a variety of toys and play equipment suitable for young children? Does the school have a piano and a phonograph?

Few nursery schools are as attractive as parents might wish. A good nursery school may be located in a big, old - fashioned house or in a church hall. If the place is clean and reasonable safety precautions have been taken, physical conditions are probably acceptable.

"The average 5-year-old has other things to learn than how to read. . ."

. . . Like having fun fingerpainting.

FAR MORE important than equipment are the teachers. Genuine liking for children, a sense of humor, energy and tact, plus the ability to think fast are needed.

The head of the school should have considerable experience and formal training.

A strong - minded, forceful director will probably insist on maximum control and no nonsense; for some children such a school may too restrictive. A wishy-washy director may be too permissive and let the children run wild. Of course, a happy medium is desirable.

The personalities and behavior of other children in the school should be considered.

Is your youngster likely to be overwhelmed by noise and aggressive tactics of the others? Or will his carefully developed confidence make him appear overaggressive in a group of sissies?

Suppose there is no nursery school available. Well, why not start your own? That is how many of the best nursery schools began. Mothers get together and assume certain responsibilities.

One might prepare lunch, another tell stories, a third take the children for a walk, and so on. These co-operative ventures have the best chance when a fair amount of capital is available and at least one trained person can be hired.

On a less formal scale, parents can devise substitute activities. A story hour for the neighboring children, an occasional visit to the zoo or museum, birthday parties — all these can provide children with meaningful experiences.

WHEN IS the best time for a child to start nursery school? The answer depends on the child.

If a youngster has developed some ability to look after himself, if he seems interested in the school when he visits it, and if the director feels he is ready for the experience, it should be safe to enroll him, with the understanding that he may be withdrawn after a trial period.

What if a child doesn't like nursery school? This is no great tragedy. Try to find out why he is not happy. Let him stay home for a few days and then try again.

Talk over the problem with his teachers. If after a fair trial and real effort a child is clearly not benefiting, it is best to withdraw him. Later, another school may be found better suited to his needs.

After nursery school comes kindergarten, and most of what has been said about nursery schools applies to kindergarten classes.

In a few schools, kindergarten is really a kind of fraudulent substitute for the first grade. Instead of providing the supervised play and developmental activities appropriate for 5-year-olds, teachers coax and nag youngsters to learn to read and do simple arithmetic problems.

Research offers convincing evidence that it is not a good idea. The average 5-year-old is not ready physically, mentally, or emotionally to read.

He has other things to learn; how to get along without Mother for a while, how to get along with other children and how to build his strength and develop muscular coordination.

You can help your children get the most out of kindergarten by maintaining a happy, relaxed atmosphere in the home and cooperating closely with the school.

Homing Pigeon Stops For Maine Blvd. 'Visit'

Anyone in the area lose a homing pigeon?

A white bird with black markings has been making its home at the George Reinacher residence on Maine Blvd. since Sunday.

Although it does not appear to be injured, the bird makes no attempt to fly and just hops around on the ground. It has been remaining close to the home as food is placed out for it.

The pigeon is all white with black markings around the neck. It has a leg band, presumably with registration number, which might indicate ownership. Pigeon loft owners who may know of the missing bird may contact Mrs. Reinacher.

The ulna and the radius are the names of the two large bones in each human arm.

New Dwellings Gain In Cleveland Suburbs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Construction of new dwellings increased in the suburbs but dropped off in Cleveland during the first half of this year, the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. reported Tuesday.

CEI, using records based on installation of electric meters in new dwellings, said multi-family units built in Cleveland declined from 497 last year to 377 in 1959. Single-family units rose slightly from 177 to 190. In Cuyahoga County, outside Cleveland, single-family units completed increased 257 over last year to 2,398. Multi-family dwellings were up 155 to 673. Completions of single homes rose 12 per cent in Geauga County, but declined one per cent in Ashtabula County and 16 per cent in Lake County.

U.S. To Send Ohio $270,635 For Rural Library Service

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The federal government is sending Ohio $270,635 to improve library service to its rural residents.

That's about $62,000 more than the state got in the fiscal year which ended June 30. Congress appropriated the same amount (six million dollars) this year as last, but said that any state which could match the federal dollars 55-45 could receive its entire grant.

Ohio could.

The state got its first payment in July and will get the rest in January. The money is granted to the states by ratio of their rural population to that of the nation as a whole. The Library Services Act of 1956 makes it possible.

Among other things, State Librarian Walter Brahm said today, the state intends to:

Set up a service-storage center, the first of nine proposed, in northwest Ohio to serve Van Wert, Lucas, Defiance, Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Williams, Wood, Paulding and Putnam counties. It would permit smaller libraries in the counties to borrow books for two or three month periods to increase their offerings and would offer special services like films, publicity aids and mimeographing.

Establsh a state-wide cataloguing center in Columbus where libraries unable to afford a professional cataloguer could have their entire collection of books catalogued to help readers find what they want to read.

The money also goes for new books, bookmobile operation and personnel to administer the program.

Implication Bothers Him More Than Pain

DALLAS (AP)—The implication bothered him more than the pain, Marvin Pannell said, when he was shot Tuesday while hunting near a suburban lake.

Pannell, 47, said two men fired at him as he crawled through underbrush hunting rats.

As they rushed him to a clinic, Pannell said, they told him "they thought I was a rabbit."

Mahoning Man Begins 8-20 Year Sentence

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A Youngstown, Ohio, man began an 8-20 year sentence in Western State Penitentiary today for his part in a safe cracking last October in nearby Unity Twp.

John L. Keenan, 45, was given the sentence Tuesday after pleading guilty to armed robbery and burglary.

Keenan was charged with taking part in opening the safe at the Marguerite Volunteer Fireman's Club.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Please tell me how I can brighten up a faded - looking carpet?

A. After sweeping your carpet clean, mix one - half gallon of cold water with one - half cup of ammonia or vinegar. Take a soft, clean mop and wring it well in a pail of this mixture. Rub it over your rug.

Q. What is the best container to use for filling the jelly and preserve jars?

A. Try using the gravy boat. The long nose will fit into any sized fruit jar and can be held by the handle.

Q. How can I make a room appear larger than it really is?

A. Light woodwork and light-colored draperies always tend to give a room the appearance of being larger than it really is.

Reprieve Looms For Wild Horse Herds Of West

DENVER (AP)—The wild horse herds of the West, vanishing from the American scene as the buffalo did 75 years ago, may get a reprieve with a new law that went into effect Tuesday.

President Eisenhower signed the measure which makes illegal the decimating mechanized roundups of recent years. The wild horses were run to exhaustion by jeeps and airplanes and wound up as dog food.

One of the strongest voices to end the wild horse slaughter was that of Velma Johnson of Wadsworth, Nev., better known in Washington as "Wild Horse Annie." And it was a Nevada congressman, Rep. Walter S. Baring (D-Nev), whose bill to halt the mass slaughter of the wild horses became law.

"I'm very happy," Baring said. "It shows the people's hearts are still with the good old American traditions."

Since the northward trek of Spanish conqueror Francisco de Coronado in the 1500s, the horse has been running wild in Western states.

Here's Ohioans' Vote On Appropriations Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio representatives' votes Tuesday as the House passed the $1,185,309,093 public works appropriations bill 302-93:

Democrats for: Ashley, Cook, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan, Levering, Moeller, Vanek.

Republicans for: Betts, Henderson.

Republicans against: Ayres, Bow, Brown, Devine, Latta, McCulloch, Schenck, Scherer.

Paired for: Baumhart (R).

Paired against: Bolton, Minshall and Hess (Republicans).

(A pair is an arrangement by which a member not actually voting may have his position recorded).

Police Hold 7 Youths

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police are holding seven youths who they say have admitted 31 West Side burglaries and safecrackings since last February. Their loot reportedly totaled $30,000.

Labor Day Turning Point

Business Waits Answer To Many Key Problems

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Business starts its new year this week with more than the usual parcel of uncertainties. For many industries and most merchants, Labor Day is much more of a turning point than Jan. 1.

Before the month is over businessmen could have answers to many problems: What the Soviet Premier's visit will bring, the effects and outcome of the steel and copper strikes, the debut of the new cars and new models of the old, tightening money, the chills and fever at present in the stock market, how freely consumers will buy the new fall goods.

Headlines will center first on the the arrival Tuesday of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The visit has everyone guessing, businessmen along with the rest. What will happen to the cold war has dollar and cents impact on the defense industries, especially aircraft and electronics—and it just possibly could bring lower taxes in time.

Khrushchev seems likely to renew his request for more trade through relaxation of American curbs on exports. He may give American businessmen some clue as to how much of a competitor the Soviet Union could become in world trade.

Crowding even Khrushchev for top billing will be the steel and copper strikes. This time business sees in the conflict between labor and management more fundamental principles than in any previous postwar tussle.

Both sides seem more determined to stick by their guns in the fight over the questions: Can there be a wage increase without further inflation? Should management be allowed to change some of the recently acquired factory working rules which it says add to costs.

Detroit isn't the only place they're wondering whether motorists will take to the new compact cars—and if they do what that will do to sale of foreign cars here, or to the larger models of American make.

The return of an auto buying spree like 1955 would have a spreading effect all though the economy.

And one place it would be felt quickly is in the money market, where tightening credit and rising interest rates are just beginning to be felt at the consumer level.

Cost of bank loans to business already have risen. Talk is growing that charges on instalment buying is coming next. The big credit institutions have just announced they'll charge auto dealers more to finance inventories and sales of cars.

Perhaps the greatest uncertainty of all at the moment is what the stock market will do. Bulls and bears have been on a teeter-totter of late.

Many investors and traders are having a hard time deciding if the bull market is over, just taking a breather before a new climb, or in for a correction—a word that means that many high flying stocks may be brought closer to earth.

Detectives Think They Found Murder Weapon

CINCINNATI (AP)— Detectives say they may have found the weapon used to bludgeon Thomas O'Keefe to death in the washroom of an office building.

Police said Tuesday night a 12-inch metal bar with markings indicating a tie with the fatal beating were found behind a large pipe in a third floor hallway of the Carew Tower.

The body of O'Keefe, an insurance adjuster, was found Aug. 27 on the 14th floor of the Carew Tower.

The four-pound metal bar was sent to Kettering Labroatory here for analysis.

Work Estimate Given

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Work on a new $2,800,000 airport terminal at Akron-Canton Airport is expected to be completed in 18 months. The project started Tuesday at ceremonies attended by Summit and Stark County commissioners and the mayors of Akron, Canton, Massillon, Barberton and Cuyahoga Falls. The airport, built during World War II by the government, was turned over to the joint administration of Stark and Summit counties in 1946.

Ohio Girl Cites Delay In Marriage To Prince

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unsettled world conditions are to blame for delaying wedding plans between her and a Nepalese prince, says Lynn Waldron of Pepper Pike, Ohio.

The 22-year-old artist-writer said Tuesday that the marriage would take place when and if the troubled situation in the Far East "stabilizes."

Miss Waldron met Prince Bashundhara Bir Bikam Shah in January, 1958, while she was traveling through Nepal. The engagement was announced last January while the prince was visiting in Ohio.

Renominated 4th Time

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Mayor Leo A. Berg was renominated for a fourth term in Tuesday's primary election and will face Republican Edge L. Garrigan Jr. in November. Berg received 12,959 of the 21,192 votes cast in the Democratic race. Garrigan, a 34 - year - old insurance agent making his first try for public office, led the GOP ticket by getting 8,705 of the record 13,164 votes cast by Republicans.

Dies From Burns

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Eric Fricke, 2½, is dead because he went to watch his neighbors in suburban Kettering build a Labor Day float Sunday evening. A torch containing a kerosene bug repellent fell, and the little boy was sprayed with flaming liquid. His father, Howard Fricke, and others put out the flames and the youngster was rushed to Miami Valley Hospital here, where he died Tuesday.

$400,000 Suit Against DiSalle Takes New Turn

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The $400,000 damage suit against Gov. Michael V. DiSalle took a new turn here Tuesday as both sides were ordered to file briefs in the move to make DiSalle file a deposition in the suit.

Franklin County Common Pleas Judge Robert M. Draper ordered the briefs filed by Oct. 3.

Orville Elias of Ironton has sued DiSalle for statements by the governor. DiSalle had indicated to newsmen that Elias perjured himself in behalf of former State Sen. Oakley Collins in an Ironton Municipal Court case last April 14.

Following Tuesday's hearing, Elias' attorney, Lloyd Moore of Ironton, filed two additional suits.

One is against The Associated Press for $400,000 and another against E. W. Scripps, chairman of the board of Scripps Newspapers, Inc., for $300,000.

Both suits allege Elias had a "good reputation" prior to July 8 when stories were published pertaining to DiSalle's statements.

Elias said that by reason of the stories he has been exposed to "hatred, shame, disgrace and loss of public confidence."

The suit against The AP charges the wire service with sending the stories to newspapers, radio and television stations throughout Ohio and the United States.

The suit against Scripps contains a copy of a headline and story appearing in the July 8 Columbus Citizen.

A $300,000 damage suit had been filed earlier by Elias against the Columbus Dispatch.

Attorney Moore stated that a deposition from the governor is essential to ascertain whether the governor has privilege, and that it is the right of the plaintiff to take a deposition.

DiSalle's attorneys maintained that the governor does not have to file a deposition because (1) the acts were done in his capacity as governor; (2) the acts are absolutely privileged; (3) any evidence that might be obtained by such deposition material is inadmissible by virtue of being wholly, irrelevant, immaterial and privileged.

They added that DiSalle made the statements only after an investigation by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

More said that the governor was not acting in an executive capacity when he made the statements because he was not acting pursuant to a constitutional mandate or any statute.

John Knepper, one of DiSalle's three attorneys, said it must be presumed the governor acts as governor 24 hours a day, every day of the year.

He continued that the state constitution provides for one chief executive and that it would be a travesty for the court to require him to be taken from his office and be made to answer questions.

Gunpowder Explosion Kills Uniontown Boy

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—George Smith Jr., 10 of Uniontown suffered fatal injuries Tuesday in a gunpowder explosion at his home.

His brother, James, 8, was listed in serious condition at Uniontown Hospital.

The boys found the gunpowder in a barn at the home, according to hospital officials.

Judge Charges Jury

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Ignore the rumors of racketeering and gambling and stick to the facts, Common Pleas Judge George N. Graham told the new Stark County grand jury. As the jury was sworn in Tuesday, the judge explained that the law provides for only two reports by grand juries—the condition of the county jail and actions taken on accusations brought before the panel. Previous grand juries, he pointed out, have presented reports on various situations and conditions regarding gambling in the county.
